VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System

Its Medical Properties Are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC. SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints can only be effectually cured through the blood

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin Pustules, Pimples Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald Head and Ringworm VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints It invigorates and strengthens the whole system acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public

UNQUALIFIED APPRECIATION.

BOSTON, Nov 18, 1875.

H R. STEVENS, Esq

DEAR SIR—During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merit of VEGETINE. My wife has used it for complaints attending a lady of delicate health, with more beneficial results than anything else which she ever tried I have given it to my children under almost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit. I have taken it myself with such great benefit that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness

While performing my duties as a Police Officer in this city, it has been my lot to fall in with a great deal of sickness I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetine, and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it. Particularly in cases of a debilitated or impoverished state of the blood its effects are really wonderful, and for all complaints arising from an impure state of the blood it appears to work like a charm, and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with injurious results, and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegetine.

CHARLESTOWN, March 19, 1869.

H R. STEVENS

Dear Sir This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and I think that for Scrofula or Cankerous Humors or Rheumatic Affections it cannot be excelled and as a Blood Purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine Yours respectfully,

MRS A A DINSMORE, 19 Russell St

SWORN STATEMENT

OF A

BOSTON DRUGGIST.

Gentlemen —I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer I was rendered partially deaf had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils hard and constant cough severe pain across the chest and every indication of consumption My head ached all the time The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me at the point of suffocation I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly—a deep, hard cough Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease so that I lost flesh, grew pale and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges It stopped my cough in three days By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils, so that they soon ceased to trouble me The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased my senses of hearing and of seeing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH

I have been thus explicit because as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following their use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them

Since curing myself with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, I have recommended it in over one hundred cases without a single case of failure, and have in numerous instances received wholesale orders from parties to whom I have sold one bottle. This is the only patent medicine I have ever recommended never having believed in them before, although constantly engaged in their sale

Very gratefully yours,
GEORGE F DINSMORE

ADDITIONAL STATEMENT.

Since the above statement was made I have been rapidly improving in health I have had no return of the disagreeable symptoms that attended my former sickness, and although affected from time to time with severe colds incidental to the sudden changes in our climate, they have not been sufficient to bring on a return of the disease My general health has been excellent. I have gained twenty five pounds and consider myself entirely recovered from a disease that a year ago seemed likely to totally undermine my constitution Since last February I have consulted with a great many afflicted with Catarrh, and in the hundreds of cases in which I have sold it I have never seen an instance sufficient to shake the confidence I feel in Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

Harlow Street, - Bangor, Maine.

GEORGE F. HILL, Prop'r.

This spacious and popular Hotel has been thoroughly renovated by the present proprietor Several of the choice rooms have been refurnished, and all the appointments of the house are now first class. The Holly Water has been introduced, and the establishment is heated by steam These improvements make the house thoroughly comfortable, convenient and pleasant.

The location of the FRANKLIN HOUSE is one of the most agreeable, healthy and central in the city It is within one minute's walk of the Post Office, Custom House and Norombega Hall, and convenient to all the business parts of the city

Mr ROYAL QUIMBY, the old and popular Clerk of the house, will continue to discharge the duties of that position

With these advantages the proprietor flatters himself that he will be enabled fully to satisfy the expectations of the old patrons of the house, and make it a desirable resort for the travelling public The table will be made second to that of no other hotel in Maine

Coaching to and from the cars and steamboats free to guests.

Send me five boxes of your Pills

Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail for Chills and Fever

I have over 200 such testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude

For Cutaneous Disorders.

And all eruptions of the skin this Ointment is most invaluable It does not heal externally alone but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

Invariably cure the following diseases

Disorder of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs whether they secrete too much or too little water or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed

For Stomachs out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills, they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasm—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach

In the matter of JOHN C CARPENTER, Bankrupt,
IN BANKRUPTCY

This is to give notice that a Petition has been presented to the Court, this 2d day of June, 1876, by John C. Carpenter, of Houlton, a Bankrupt, praying that he may be decreed to have a full discharge from all his debts, provable under the Bankrupt Act and now upon reading said Petition, on this 27th day of November, A D 1876,

It is ordered by the Court that a hearing be had upon the same, on the first Monday of March, A. D, 1877, before the Court in Portland, in said District, at 10 o clock, A M, and that notice thereof be published in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier and the Aroostook Valley Sunrise, newspapers printed in said District, once a week for three successive weeks, and once in the Weekly Bangor Courier, the last publication to be thirty days at least before the day of hearing, and that all creditors who have proved their debts and other persons in interest, may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

WM. P. PREBLE,
Clerk of District Court for said District.

NEW MAGAZINES

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for December is a charming number, which opens with a pretty little steel plate engraving "My Pets" The reading matter is especially attractive, even for so entertaining a magazine as GODEY'S, and the fashion plates, designs, etc, are as usual, just what the ladies want For every new subscriber the publisher offers a copy of "The Mother's Joy," a fine chromo from the press of Messrs Major and Knapp, of New York who have the reputation of being the best chromo printers in the United States

THE GALAXY for December is a number which fittingly closes the year, both in its general make up, always excellent and the large amount of choice and valuable reading matter it furnishes its readers A glance at the table of contents shows the feast it contains Madcap Violet chaps XL—XLIII, After Long Years, The Story of Aspasia, Le Curé, People and Pictures at the Fair, The Site of Constantinople, The Fall of Leaves, Professor Hoffman's Folly, A Chapter in the History of Art in America, Macaulay, Laborare est Orare, Oriental Legends, Mutual Criticism, Gettysburg, Pride, Tit for Tat, Driftwood, "The Scientific Miscellany" contains a large mass of interesting matters as does the "Current Literature and Nebulæ" departments that are never dull For 1877, (this closing the twenty third volume) the magazine will be even of greater attractions, and it will continue as it has for twelve years, a high toned literary magazine Sheldon & Co, Publishers 8 Murray Street

The December number of THE PENN MONTHLY presents its readers with the following matters of interest Of Self fertilization and Cross fertilization in Flowers Poetry of the Pictor Ignotus The Great Plateau Region Concerning Zeal III, Force, From the New Book of an [illegible]—II, Henry C Carey in Germany etc The number is of unusual excellence and interest Published by J H Coates & Co, Philadelphia

In LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for December the Centennial articles are brought to a close with an account of the Dutch Exhibits and a summary of the general results It is well illustrated, and the series in its completed form constitutes a pictorial and durably written record of the Exhibition which cannot fail to have a permanent value It is supplemented by a paper on Ceramic Art at the Exhibition by a writer who has made this subject a specialty and who applies information and criticism of a kind that readers will be glad to obtain Another illustrated article is the conclusion of Ellis Yarnall's pleasant account of his ramble in Wordsworth's Country, and intercourse with the poet's family and friends Lady Barker whose Letters from South Africa are drawing to a close writes in her usual entertaining manner and there are some minor papers of interest, including an expose of a Spiritualistic Medium the truth of which is vouched for Fresh installments of The Marquis of Lossie and Love in Idleness, and a story of war times by Rebecca Harding Davis make up the fiction of the number The poems are few and short, but good The Monthly Gossip embraces a variety of subjects, treated in a condensed and graphic manner The present number concludes the eighteenth volume and ninth year of the Magazine The Publishers promise strong attractions for the coming year among which will be a serial story by Geo McDonald, a series of illustrated sketches of Swedish scenery and life, sketches of travel from Spain, etc

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE for December makes its tribute to the interest felt in the recently-closed Centennial Exposition, at Philadelphia, by presenting its readers with an excellent portrait of Gen Joseph R Hawley, President of the Centennial Commission The portrait is accompanied by a brief sketch of Gen Hawley's life

A list of the literary contents will be sufficient to show the value, interest, and variety of matters in the number Automatism and Evolution, by Charles Elam, M D, Daniel Deronda, The Two Chancellors Prince Gortschakoff and Prince Bismarck, Astronomy in America, by Richard A Proctor, B. A, F R S, Primavera, by W. W. THANKSGIVING DAY

Although the season of this time-honored festival comes amid much that distracts the public mind, we must not forget that we have much to be thankful for and that it is fitting that we should show our gratitude. Certainly we have reason to be specially thankful for that New England civilization from which the observance itself has been derived, which has protected us from the disorders so lamentable elsewhere, and which has inculcated that respect for public order and that veneration for justice on which the welfare of society so much depends.

As individuals and for our own community and State, we have reason to be grateful for many bounties and blessings, and in looking to our National future we may well find our confidence strengthened by rendering thanks to the Divine favor which has guided us safely through the trials and troubles of the past.

We have reason to be thankful in the belief that the great majority of the intelligent people of our country are sincerely desirous that right and justice shall prevail, and throughout the length and breadth of the land there will be hundreds of thousands of loyal hearts which will be specially thankful to-day that we have at the head of our National Government a man of proved devotion to the Republic of undaunted courage and of honest purpose.

A TIME FOR COOL HEADS AND PATRIOTIC HEARTS

When the red spirit of revolution is stalking abroad it is no time to pass snap judgments upon those weighted with the responsibility of maintaining law and order. The present is a time for cool heads and patriotic hearts, a time when good citizens should look the situation as it is squarely in the face, and cast their influence in support of the Chief Magistrate who rendered matchless service to the Nation in its former hour of trial and who is honestly and firmly seeking to guard it against the perils of to-day.

Ask yourselves what is the trouble and whence does it come? and you cannot evade the answer that the threatening of the public peace arises from the revolutionary manifestations in certain of the States but a few years since in open rebellion. No loyal State is menacing public order or disturbing the National tranquility, but it is in communities which have hitherto been foremost in revolution that the evil genius of disorder is again at work and again threatening the interests of the whole country. The scene of disorder is not only that of previous rebellion, but its instigators and chiefs are distinguished solely by their leading participation in that bloody conspiracy which nearly destroyed the Republic.

[illegible] these facts patent to all, and yet hypocritical and unscrupulous journals whose editors doubtless found bomb-proof shelter when the last revolution was soaking the fields with loyal blood hasten to carp at and to assail the President for striving to [illegible] the power with which he is intrusted [illegible] maintain the Government which he and [illegible] citizen soldiers preserved.

Impeach Ulysses S. Grant! Impeach the Chief Magistrate whose proved devotion and undaunted firmness and calm [illegible] of patriotism has held the country [illegible] during these recent weeks [illegible]. What disloyal [illegible] what unpatriotic word what act of [illegible] in the path of [illegible] his charge during this [illegible] the anxieties, the fears [illegible] the embarrassments which [illegible] millions of people [illegible] burden upon his shoulders.

[illegible] men of this country [illegible] the sheet anchor of the Republic [illegible] patriotism and [illegible] minutes or idiots [illegible] the cable which holds us to that mooring and seek to impair public confidence in the President when the [illegible] of that confidence is of vastly more [illegible] to the public than to himself.

[illegible] is the alleged offence? The Governor of the State of South Carolina called upon the President for protection [illegible] domestic violence. Does any sane [illegible] believe that such violence was not [illegible]? Are we to shut our eyes and [illegible] as well as our hearts? Is it not notorious that reorganized Confederate [illegible] bodies numbering tens of thousands, fully officered and drilled, and commanded by the leading rebel General of the State have for months raided up and down the counties of South Carolina setting law at defiance and committing innumerable murders and outrages? Is it not notorious that the Governor, whose record has hitherto been indorsed by the very leaders of the present revolution, is compelled to have his premises guarded to prevent the assassination of himself and family? In the face of notorious events [illegible] we to discredit our intellect and give credence to the paltering assertions of such men as Gordon and Wade Hampton, who come before the public with hands stained by the blood of the Ku-Klux and the Rifle-Club atrocities? The man who will accept the protestations that the Hampton legions in South Carolina to-day are sucking-doves of gentleness and pious conservators of order and patriotism, is entitled only to [illegible]

The Governor was apprised of the gathering of thousands of armed men with the intention of forcibly seizing possession of the State Capitol and controlling the organization of the Legislature. There was no doubt about this, for the purpose was openly declared and has since been openly admitted. Is not the seizure of the State buildings by unlawful armed bodies of citizens an act of domestic violence and is it not the duty of the Executive to prevent such a revolutionary act? He thought so, and asked the aid of United States forces for that purpose and they were used for that purpose and no other. But a great outcry is made because Federal troops were stationed in the State House! In the name of common sense where else were they to be placed to aid the Governor in preventing the domestic violence in the intended seizure of that building? The troops were sent to sustain the lawful Executive of the State and they were used for the prevention of the unlawful purpose of which he had been notified. That is all there is of it. The United States soldiers have committed no crime, they have butchered no defenceless prisoners after the fashion of the chivalry at Hamburg, and they have not carried terror throughout the country as have Hampton's armed squadrons. They are in South Carolina to aid in upholding the lawful authorities and in affording security to peaceful citizens.

Have any of the eager critics considered what has probably been averted? The colored population of Charleston, as of the State, is considerably in excess of the white population, and the colored people are Republicans. Knowing the object of the armed seizure of the State House by the Rifle Clubs, does any one suppose that those colored people, believing their liberties to be endangered, would have refrained from counter-demonstration? There can hardly be a doubt that such a Democratic raid upon the State House would have caused such a riot as Charleston has never yet seen. The Democrats expected it and trusted to the fact that they were fully armed and organized while the colored people would form but an unwieldy mob. But should not all good citizens rejoice that such a collision has been avoided? And yet we hear the unreasoning lament that the only means has been employed by which it could have been averted.

And these same hair-splitting critics are very much exercised because the President has assembled a small military force at the National Capital at a time when events are quite as threatening as in 1861. If the Democratic party will countenance and indorse an attempt to sieze possession of a State House in order to declare by these revolutionary methods the election of a Democratic Governor and U. S. Senator, on what ground are we to believe that party incapable of organizing a similar forcible seizure of the National Capitol in order to declare in their own way the election of a President of the United States? Men who would try to argue that there was no danger of fire while standing in the presence of conflagration, are quite as logical as those who attempt to argue that the country can have nothing to fear from a Democratic party which gave us four years of bloody rebellion and which is aiding and abetting outrage and revolution in the Southern States to-day.

The rights and liberties of the people have nothing to fear from the conqueror of rebellion, and they should sustain him in his honest and earnest efforts to preserve the Republic from its new dangers. Stand by the President!

AN IMPORTANT FACT

It is of the utmost importance in these exciting times that our people should bear constantly in mind the fact that all the regular news channels in the South are under as complete control of the Democrats as the "bull dozed" parishes of Louisiana.—The Associated Press despatches from Columbia are written by an officer of a Rifle Club, those from Charleston come from the News and Courier, a most virulent Hampton organ and those from Louisiana and Florida are equally colored in the Democratic interest. While the New Orleans despatches have made the most of every point that could be turned in any way to the disadvantage of the Republicans, not one word was sent by the Associated Press Agent about the startling testimony of Democratic outrage given before the Returning Board, which was so horrible as to excite even the Democrats from the North to utter emphatic condemnation. It is only when some Republican South is occasionally able to get a message through that any facts adverse to the Democracy can reach us.

It is an absolute fact that the news currently sent forth by the local reporters in the disorderly Southern States is just as reliable and no more so than the news concerning the rebellion which emanated from Richmond or Charleston in 1862-3.—Bear this in mind and look to the source from whence despatches come and the temper they display.

SOME OF THE POINTS AT ISSUE IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

[From the Boston Journal.]

Writing while the South Carolina matter is still in abeyance and it is uncertain what the next development may be, we desire to revert briefly to some of the points at issue which constitute the basis on which judgment must be made up. These are—First, the partisan character of the Supreme Court, as shown a By the open affiliation of two of its three Judges, Chief Justice Moses and Judge Willard, with the Democrats, both during the canvass and since the election.

b By its enjoining the Canvassing Board from the exercise of the judicial functions conferred upon it by law.

c By its separating the election returns, prohibiting investigation where investigation would be injurious to the Democrats, and commanding investigation where it was expected that it would be helpful to the Democrats.

d By thus laying down two different and conflicting sets of instruction in the same case, the difference being of such a sort as springs from no principle, but serves partisan ends.

e By failing to decide the question whether the law creating the Canvassing Board is constitutional, but acting on the assumption of its unconstitutionality.

f By compelling the aggregate returns to be presented, before giving its order regarding them, thereby so modifying its instructions as to best serve the Democratic necessities in the several cases.

g By usurping the functions of the Canvassing Board, and making of the latter a mere machine, overthrowing and nullifying its acts, when distasteful, and making use of fines and imprisonment, to enforce partisan decrees.

h By the violent, partisan harangue given by one of its Judges, Willard, from his official place on the bench.

The second point is the substantial justice of the position assumed by the Canvassing Board, as shown by the following facts:

a That they submitted to the decrees of the Supreme Court, and completed their count in accordance with them.

b That, aggregating the face of the returns, as directed by the Court, they found the Hayes electors chosen by small majorities and announced this result.

c That, finding that such gross frauds had been perpetrated in two strongly Republican counties, Edgefield and Laurens, as to give the Democrats a claim to them by majorities actually in excess of the voting population, and being debarred, by the orders of the Court, from investigating these frauds, they made up their returns for the Legislature without regarding these counties, and gave certificates to the candidates of neither party.

d That, when the time prescribed by law for the completion of their work had elapsed, they finished the count, issued certificates to candidates elected, and adjourned.

e That the reason they failed to obey the last order of the Court, on account of which it is now attempted to hold them in contempt, was that the order was issued after they had dissolved, and when, consequently, they had no legal existence.

We ask our readers to bear these points in mind, because they are of importance, not only in judging events which have already occurred, but as determining the right or wrong of measures which may be undertaken in the near future. Here, in Massachusetts, we are in the habit of regarding the Supreme Court with respect as the tribunal of last resort; and any attempt to evade or set aside the judgments would be severely condemned. But our Supreme Court has never debased its powers to partisan ends, it has never usurped the authority of other branches of the Government, it has never interfered in political affairs, or attempted to override the will of the people as expressed in an election. If it attempted any of these things it would instantly forfeit every claim to respect. The South Carolina situation should be judged, therefore, not by such standards as we have in Massachusetts, but by such as the unrighteous and partisan procedures of the South Carolina Court compel us to apply.

TILDEN'S MAN IN FLORIDA

[Cor New York Times.]

As Democratic papers North are in the habit of heaping indiscriminate abuse upon Southern Returning Boards, it may be important to know something about the Florida Board. All of its members are Southern men, Mr McLin having been born in Tennessee, Mr Cowgill in Delaware, and Mr Cocke in Havana. Mr. McLin and Mr. Cowgill have always borne the highest character for integrity and honor here and elsewhere, and not a word can be said against them by any party in any relation of life. They represent the Republicans on the board. As to Cocke, this much is beyond dispute. He was appointed to his present position as Attorney-General by the late Governor Hart out of sympathy, he being in reduced circumstances, and professing to be a Republican. Very soon after his appointment, his conduct was such that Gov Hart was compelled to request his resignation. Cocke intimated that he would comply, if the request was put in writing. It was put in writing, and Cocke then asked that the Governor should give his reasons. These were given in full, and Cocke closed the correspondence by refusing to resign. In Gov Hart's Message to the Legislature, January 1, 1874, he quotes the entire correspondence, and closes his comments on Cocke's refusal to resign, as follows:

"It may be seen that the Cabinet of administrative officers, who the Constitution provides shall aid the Governor, is required by this refusal to endure the presence in it of an Attorney General in whose abilities as a lawyer and diligence in attending to his important duties in the Courts, the Governor has lost all confidence."

After Gov Hart's death, and when Lieut Governor Stearns succeeded to his office, all the other members of the Cabinet had sense of delicacy enough to tender their resignations, but Cocke hung on, and still continues to cling to his office, although he and the Governor have not been on speaking terms for months. Much more might be said about the private record of Cocke, but this will suffice to indicate the kind of man who represents the Democrats in the Canvassing Board, and on whom they are relying to aid them in stealing the State for Tilden.

When the man over the way questions our statements or attempts giving lessons in law, he should try to find out what he is writing about. Last evening he made a fierce attack upon one of our notes to a despatch and after much pretence of contradiction ended by substantiating every word of our statement. No one would think of discussing law with the Bangor Commercial, but on the question of fact the evidence is conclusive. The Rifle Club despatch from Columbia stated that "members of the Legislature exhibited certificates from the Supreme Court of their election," and we contradicted this as false on the testimony of Judge Willard on the Bench who said in refusing to issue such certificates "If we undertake to give certificates that people are elected, we shall be doing what we are not authorized to do." Judge Emery and Judge Willard can settle the law of this opinion between themselves.

The Democratic scheme of cutting off here and there a Republican elector in order to boost Tilden into power by a technicality, is a two edged weapon, which seems to cut the hardest backward. One of the electors in North Carolina is ineligible because he holds a commission for taking testimony for the Southern Claims Commission. One of the electors in Missouri a West Pointer, who violated his oath and went into the rebellion, is ineligible because he is unreconstructed. The Republicans have the advantage, since none of their electors are ineligible for disloyalty. The Democrats are not hunting for individual electors as much as they were.—Boston Traveller.

A subscriber writes us that a Winterport Democrat received a letter Tuesday from a gentleman in Florida who says in a P S—"It is no use to talk—Hayes has really carried the State by near 1,200 majority."

THE SWEDISH

Lady Vocal Quartet,

OF BOSTON.

The Swedish Ladies' Quartet made its first appearance in this city last evening at Music Hall. Notwithstanding the favorable report that had preceded the Quartet from Europe, the ladies' performance was a delightful surprise. The rendering of an English love song in the most faultless English quite unlike that of Mme Nilsson—gave a more direct and powerful impression of the surpassing beauty of the artistic finish and power achieved by the Swedish Ladies Quartette.—Boston Transcript.

Sale of tickets commences Wednesday morning at D Bugbee & Co's Bookstore. Tickets to the Course $1 50 and $2 00. The Course tickets will also be offered for sale by Comrades of Post 12, who will canvass the city commencing Friday, Dec 1st.

The Northern People to Learn the Truth at Last.

A Thrilling Scene before the Board—Northern Democrats Horrified by Democratic Atrocities.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29. The Times has the following:

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. A startling scene occurred before the Returning Board today. Four witnesses were examined, all of whom had been wantonly shot because of their Republican principles. Two were brought to the city on cots. Their names are Ben James, Eaton Longwood, H. W. Burrell and Eliza Pinkerton. During the latter's pitiful recital of her wrongs:—Of her husband, emasculated and then killed before her eyes; of her babe whose throat was cut in her arms; of her own gashed breast and limbs, and finally the outrage of her person by two white Democrats, Ex-Gov. John M. Palmer, of Illinois, of the Democratic visiting committee,

Leaped from his chair and said in wrath: "If this story be false those that prepared it for this poor woman should be hanged; but if, as I firmly believe, it is true, the wretches who can perpetrate such atrocities should be executed without mercy. I will spend ten thousand dollars to ferret out this case. It looks true. This poor woman has certainly been cruelly wronged. The question is broader now than President-making. It is one of humanity. If she has told the truth Sheridan should come back at once and hold with a grip of iron a people who can see such infamy without remonstrance even in their public prints."

Other Northern Democrats Repudiate and Denounce the Perpetrators of Such Barbarity.

Gov. Palmer was greatly excited while making these remarks and astounded the Louisiana Democrats, who tried in vain to pacify him. Gen. Geo. B. Smith of Wisconsin, also exhibited much excitement and turning upon the local Democrats said "You have deceived us." Subsequently Lyman Trumbull fully concurred with Gen. Palmer. The demoralization of the Democrats here is complete, not only because of the facts disclosed, but because of the names of leading Democrats who are exposed in detail as murderers and ravishers.

Evidence of Outrages that will Startle the Whole Country.

To-night the Chief of Police was compelled to station a force around the domicile within which Mrs. Pinkerton lies prostrate on a bed. At last it is evident that even the Northern Democrats cannot return home and sneer down Northern Democratic outrages as myths. The testimony with which Hon. John Sherman, Gen. Garfield, Eugene Hale, Geo. White, Courtland Parker, E. W. Stoughton and George Kelley will furnish the North will startle the whole country.

LOUISIANA.

The Reporter who said nothing about the outrage testimony now makes special pleas for the Democrats.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29. In the Returning Board after considerable discussion on the returns not received, Gov. Wells stated that the testimony in contested cases must be closed by Friday at 4 o'clock P. M. He said the Board would then go into Executive session. He said that the Democrats could present two witnesses in the case of Ouachita, but only one could be in the room at a time. Col. Zacharie said the other side was allowed three witnesses and he thought he should have the same privilege. Others of the Democratic counsel pressed the same point, but Gov. Wells allowed only two witnesses.

A Police Sergeant Reports an Attempt to Intimidate the Victim of Outrage.

Upon going into Executive session Gen. Anderson read a report from Sergt. Chaumet of the Metropolitan police, to the effect that at 8.15 P. M., Tuesday, Messrs. Hugh Jennings, Sam Young and Joseph Swain had gone to the residence of Eliza Pinkston and propounded questions in regard to the killing of her husband, whether he had been killed by whites or negroes, etc. The report went on to say that one of the men put his hand on his pistol and that Eliza Pinkston had fled from them. Mr. Gauthreux, Col. Zacharie and others of the Democratic Counsel, called upon the Board to allow them to produce witnesses to prove that the charge was false. General Anderson said it would not go into the record. Mr. Gauthreaux said it had been sent to the Board and read to produce an effect on the visitors and he thought the accused should be heard.

Counsel Plead an Alibi.

By a request of Gov. Wickliffe, Mr. Stubbs a lawyer of Ouachita, was heard. He said that two of the persons named in the communication, Mr. Swain and Mr. Young, were in the same room with him at 130 Canal street, with about 20 other persons, the whole evening and up to 1 o'clock at night. Mr. McGloin said said there were twenty other persons who could swear to the same thing.

Other Proceedings.

Chas. Tidwell and J. T. Swan were called to the stand to testify on behalf of the Democrats and questioned according to the interrogations propounded, the Republican counsel being allowed to examine them orally. They gave rebutting to that given by the woman Eliza Pinkston Tuesday in the Ouachita case.

The returns from Lafayette, Grant and Tangipahoa, were brought in during the day. Two polls in Lafayette, giving 350 Democratic majority, were not found in the consolidated returns, but the vote was obtained from accompanying tally sheets. There was a protest with the returns dated on the 28th.

Statements from all the Parishes.

Statements from all the parishes are now in and the Democratic Committee has obtained official figures of every parish.—They vary only a few hundred (due to the throwing out of polls) from the figures heretofore telegraphed. The Board will dispose of the East Baton Rouge case on Thursday.

THE FLORIDA VOTE.

Official Count of the Returns.

A MAJORITY FOR HAYES ON THEIR FACE.

Official Statement of the Secretary of the Board.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29. The Times prints the following:

ROOMS OF STATE CANVASSING BOARD,
Tallahassee, Fla., Nov. 28.

I hereby certify that returns from all the counties of the State, except Dade County, were received this day, opened by the Board of State Canvassers and the votes for Electors as officially announced from the face of the returns in detail aggregate as follows:

Republican Electors.

Humphreys,	24,328
Pearce,	24,324
Long,	24,323
Holden,	24,328

Democratic Electors.

Young,	24,284
Call,	24,285
Hilton,	24,283
Bullock,	24,282

The first four named are Republican and the last four Democratic candidates.

A. LEE APTHORP,
Clerk of the Board.

Affidavits and Counter Affidavits.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 29. The Board met at 10 o'clock and Alachua county was called. The Democrats introduced a number of affidavits to prove that the vote of the Archer precinct in that county had been fraudulently raised from 319 votes actually cast, to 538 as stated in the returns. The affidavits were by persons who had tallied the names of voters at the door, of two inspectors and two members of the county board asserting knowledge of the fraud.

The Republicans introduced counter-affidavits from Moore and Dukes, the two inspectors and Belton and Webster, the two members of the county board referred to, swearing that their former affidavits were made under under duress, fear or misapprehension and were false. The Democrats then introduced a third affidavit from Belton, swearing that if he gave any second affidavit he was not responsible when he did it. Other affidavits stated that Belton was drunk. Moore, Dukes and Webster will be summoned.

In Clay county the Democrats offered evidence of 23 votes omitted technically. In Baker county the Democrats produced an affidavit of the county clerk that the return giving Tilden 95 majority was the true one.

The Board adjourned till to-morrow at 9 A. M.

MISSOURI.

Frauds in the Municipal Election.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 29. The Commissioners appointed by the Circuit Court to recount the votes cast the 22d of August last at the election for and against what was known as the scheme to separate the city from the county and a new charter for the city, have unearthed numerous frauds of the most startling character. Two Judges of election have deposed that they so altered the votes in their precincts as to entirely reverse the result of the actual ballot.

The Metcalf-Frost Case.

In the Metcalf-Frost case Judge Lindley this forenoon ordered a peremptory mandamus to issue compelling the County Clerk to change the returns of precinct 57 from 292 for Frost to 272, as was originally written, and to certify the returns of the Third Congressional District to the Secretary of State in conformity with this order. This will give Metcalf, the Republican candidate a majority.

BLATHERSKITE.

The Herald's Latest Flop—It Wants the President Impeached.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29. The Herald says: "Gen. Grant, according to his own message, has violated the constitution in the South Carolina affair, and there is no reason why he should not be impeached."

It says: "We presume the first business of the House of Representatives when it assembles next week will be to vote his impeachment and appoint a committee to draw up the articles. It will be easily made to appear that President Grant has not only violated the constitution but sinned against knowledge."

The Fiery World.

The World advocates Grant's impeachment for the illegal use of troops.

The Evening Post Losing its Head.

The Evening Post editorially protests against armed occupation of the State House in South Carolina. "We protest against the proceeding, not only in the name of liberty and justice, but in behalf of the Republican party whose good name and worthy record are brought in question by this resort to military force in a question purely political."

A Blatherskite Story Denied.

It having been stated that ex-Gov. Dennison had advised Gov. Hayes to withdraw his name from the Presidential contest, he denies the statement, and per contra says: "I have telegraphed Hayes that in my opinion he is undoubtedly elected the next President of the United States."

MASSACHUSETTS

Robbery of a Railway Station Office by Masked Ruffians.

EAST SAUGUS, Nov. 29. Soon after the 10 o'clock train from Boston last night had left Saugus Station two masked men entered the depot and holding a revolver to the head of James Miller, the Station Agent, bound and gagged him. They then compelled him to open the safe from which they took $90. After the robbery they left Miller bound hand and foot in his office and departed. Miller succeeded after some hours in partially freeing his hands and crawled out doors towards his boarding house, some ten rods away. He was found about two o'clock this morning in the middle of the street, hardly able to breathe, and suffering from cold. No clue to the thieves.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

THE DEMOCRATS WORKING FOR A DEAD-LOCK.

THE REGULAR HOUSE PROCEEDING WITH BUSINESS.

The Hampton House Fail to Get the Governor Returns.

A Republican Majority in the Senate.

The Governor Vote to be Canvassed by the House and Senate Friday.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

O'Grady Reports the Situation for the Herald.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29. One o'clock despatch from Columbus, S. C., to the Herald has the following summary of the situation:

"The defection of two Republican members, one of whom participated in the proceedings in the Chamberlain Legislature to-day, and who helped to make up the alleged quorum of 59, leaves the rival Legislative bodies with 58 qualified members in each, exclusive of 8 members from the two counties, Edgefield and Laurens, thrown out by the Board of Canvassers.—With the latter the Democrats have a majority of seven and without them neither side has a quorum. In consequence of this the Chamberlain House will be unable to hold a session.

The Democratic Programme.

The probability is that by to-morrow the Democrats will receive such other accessions from Republicans that the latter will be utterly incapable of holding a session and leaving the Democrats masters of the field. In this event it is not improbable that the Democrats will go in a body and capture the Chamberlain Legislature and vote in members from the disputed counties as they please, which would leave them a good majority on joint ballot. The dead-lock in the Senate gives the Democracy an advantage which they will not be slow to use and altogether the situation looks encouraging for them.

Composition of the Senate.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 27. The Senate is composed of 33 members and 3 of these being excluded left 30 only. Of that number 18 were Republicans and 12 Democrats.—Three of the Republicans will vote with the Democrats, which makes a dead lock in that body. The three excluded are all Democrats who have the best prospects of being admitted.

[The above is a fair specimen of the Columbia despatches. It says "the three excluded are all Democrats" while it is well known that there were three Repulican as well as three Democratic candidates from the hitherto Republican counties of Laurens and Edgefield and that the Board gave certificates to neither on the ground of outrageous fraud by which the returns were made to show a Democratic majority. ED. WHIG.]

The Situation Unchanged.

Later—The situation to-day is unchanged with the exception that the Republican House has been in session all the morning, but were unable to transact business on account of absentees, which leave it without a quorum. The Senate is discussing the concurrent resolution passed by the House to go into the canvass of returns for Governor and Lt-Governor.

The Democrats fail to get Possession of the Returns.

The Democratic House went into secret session in Carolina Hall, after receiving the report of the Committee appointed yesterday to obtain the returns from the Secretary of State for Governor and Lt-Governor. The committee reported that the Secretary had surrendered the returns to Mr. Mackey, the Speaker of the Republican House. The military still garrison the State House.

The Court.

The Supreme Court met and adjourned without transacting any business, the lawyers being engaged in making a return to the habeas corpus case of the Board of Canvassers in Judge Bond's U. S. Circuit Court.

After Absentees.

The Sergeant-at-Arms of the Republican House is engaged in looking up absentees, but without success so far.

The House Proceeding with a Quorum.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 29.—Evening. The only matter of importance which has transpired since noon is that the missing member of the Republican Legislature has been discovered and brought in which gave that body their alleged quorum of 59. Immediately afterwards the committee on Privileges and Elections, appointed yesterday by Speaker Mackey, submitted a report stating that the Republican members, five in number, from Barnwell county are entitled to the seats for which certificates had previously been given to the Democrats by the Board of State Canvassers and the Secretary of State. This was adopted by a vote of 45 to 14, protests being entered by 2 members as the Democrats were not aware of the contest and the seats were accorded on testimoney which was ex-parte.

The Senate.

The Senate, which seems to be recognized by both Houses, passed a resolution appointing 12 o'clock Friday as the hour for canvassing the vote for Governor and Lt. Governor and adjourned till that time.

[The despatches are so misleading that it seems proper to note that while the Senate may be "recognized by both Houses" it does not appear that any but the regular House has been recognized by the Senate. A Columbia despatch above indicates that the House of which Mr. MacKey is Speaker, has been recognized by the Senate which is attended by the Democratic members, by receiving and discussing a resolution from that body for counting the votes for Governor, and the last despatch above shows that the Senate has agreed to meet on Friday for that purpose.—ED. WHIG.]

Protest by Democratic Senators.

Later—A protest signed by all the Democratic Senators was entered upon the records, protesting against recognizing the Mackey House of Representatives on the ground of illegality, of the occupation of the Capitol by armed soldiers, and of lacking a Constitutional quorum.

NEW YORK CITY.

Evarts Consulted by the Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29. It is now certain that W. M. Evarts has been informally consulted by some of the Cabinet on points already developed and possibly to be developed by the Presidential situation.

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities.

For the Middle and East Atlantic coasts: falling barometer, Northeast winds, slightly higher temperature, increasing cloudiness, and at the Southern stations possibly rains.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

Another Ministerial Defeat.

PARIS, Nov. 29th. M. Dufaure, President of the Council and Minister of Justice and Worship, experienced another defeat in the Chamber of Deputies last night on a grant for the Carmelite School which he supported, being defeated by a vote of 339 to 156. The vote on the grant for clerical scholarships, on which, according to some accounts Dufaure possibly stakes his portfolio, was not reached in yesterday's sitting.

RUSSIA.

Semi-Official Statement of Russia's Demands.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 29. The following semi-official statement is published: "The Marquis of Salisbury's conversations with Count Andrassy and Prince Bismarck, will probably have convinced him that the intimate relations between the three Imperial Courts remain unchanged and that Russia has been hitherto restrained from taking extreme measures by the consideration which is due the Emperors of Germany and Austria. Russia will at the conference through her representative declare that autonomy for the provinces must be guaranteed and that occupation appears to be the best means of rendering such guarantee efficacious. Should the other powers be unwilling to participate in the occupation, Russia will undertake the occupation single-handed." The foregoing forms the general basis of the Russian demands.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

An attempt being made in the Democratic papers to cast discredit upon the Republican presiding officers of the South Carolina Legislature, we present the following sketches from Lanman's Annals:

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE.

EDMUND W. M. MACKEY,— Born in Charleston, South Carolina; received a good school education, but was prevented by the Civil War from entering College, for which he was preparing; studied law and was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the State in 1868; was appointed Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue in 1865; took a prominent part in organizing the Republican party in the State, and in carrying out the Reconstruction Acts; was a Delegate to the State Constitutional Convention in 1867; was Sheriff of Charleston County for four years; in 1868 was elected Alderman of the city, and re-elected in 1873; was a Delegate to the Philadelphia Convention of 1872; in 1873 was elected a member of the State House of Representatives; was editor and proprietor of the Charleston Republican in 1871 and 1872; and was elected a Representative from South Carolina to the Forty-fourth Congress.

PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.

ROBERT SMALLS.— Born in Beaufort, South Carolina, April 5, 1839; received no education until the close of the civil war; lived at Beaufort until 1851, when he went to Charleston and worked at the rigger's trade, and led a seafaring life along the coast of South Carolina and Florida; having acquired a knowledge of the bays and harbors of the coast, went on board the steamer Planter in the Confederate service in 1861, acting as pilot; when the opportunity offered he seized the boat and joined the United States fleet outside the harbor; he was then entered on the navy list of the Federal service, and was subsequently commissioned as Second Lieutenant of the Twenty-third Regiment of colored troops, and performed efficient service during the war on sea and land, for which he was promoted to Captain; returned to Beaufort after the war; was a member of the Constitutional Convention, and in 1868 was a member of the House of Representatives of the State, and also filled an unexpired term in the State Senate for two years; in 1872 was re-elected to that position; was made Brigadier-General and afterward Major-General of State troops, and in 1874 was elected a Representative from South Carolina to the Forty-fourth Congresss.

Gen. Tuttle, of Iowa, a gallant soldier in the war for the Union, and all his life a Democrat, has just returned from Louisiana. He says:

Hayes has carried Louisiana beyond a doubt, if a fair and honest count of votes was had. He was surprised that any Republican votes were cast at all. The white Republicans were intimidated by social ostracism, and the blacks by whipping, shooting, refusal of employment and threats. He says the whole colored race is aroused, and, could they get arms, terrible bloodshed would result. He believes the votes will all be counted this week.

In his Memoirs General W. T. Sherman, after reciting the facts as to the burning of Columbia, thus tersely refers to the former captain of the Black Horse Cavalry and present chief of the South Carolina Rifle Club Democracy:

"In my official report of this conflagration, I distinctly charged it to General Wade Hampton, and confess I did so pointedly, to shake the faith of his people in him, for he was in my opinion a braggart, and professed to be the special champion of South Carolina."

The Commercial makes great display of that old despatch about the burning of Wade Hampton's house, which has been contradicted, and now the Boston Globe says its only foundation was the burning of a summer house of Hampton's in the North Carolina mountains, where he went to fish for brook trout.

Business Items.

TRUE ECONOMY is not in buying the lowest price articles. The best is cheapest. So with the fine cultivated and plantation grown spices imported by Messrs. Pinckney, Jackson & Co., of London and New York. Have just received a shipment of these goods and would specially invite the attention of all consumers to them. These spices are not absolutely pure, but are without a doubt the finest ever imported into this country. I confidantly recommend them as being really of unusual merit.

LOCAL MATTERS.

STATE OF MAINE.

BY THE GOVERNOR.

A PROCLAMATION

In conformity to the Proclamation of the President of the United States, and by the advice of the Executive Council, I do hereby appoint

Thursday, the Thirtieth day of November, Instant,

as a day of PUBLIC THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE to Almighty God, and I recommend to the people of this State the employment of the day thus set apart in offering the grateful acknowledgments due to Him for the well being of our country, our State and our homes during the year that has passed, and in petitions for a continuance of His loving kindness toward us.

The custom of our fathers endears to us the holding of family festivals upon that day as a beautiful and appropriate feature of its observance. If, amid the gladness of happy reunions of parents and children and children's children round a common hearthstone, our gratitude for the good that we and ours enjoy, shall extend our thoughts to the great family which embraces us all, shall awaken in our hearts fresh sentiments of love and good-will toward our fellowmen, and strengthen our determination to support the institutions and aid the influences which tend to benefit them, and to lessen human wretchedness and suffering, then will the day of our Thanksgiving be more blessed.

Given at the Council Chamber, at Augusta, this third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundreth first.

SELDEN CONNOR.

By the Governor
S. J. CHADBOURNE Secretary of State.

Thanksgiving Day.

Union services will be held at 10.30 A. M., in the following churches:

First Congregational—Discourse by Rev. Walter E. Darling of Kennebunk. Subject, The State of Maine.

Pine Street Methodist—Discourse by Rev. Cyrus Stone, D. D.

First Baptist—Discourse by Rev. F. T. Hazlewood.

St. John's (Episcopal)—Services at half past 10; sermon by the Rector, Rev. G. T. Packard.

BREWER. Congregational church—Discourse by Rev. Mr. Eldridge of the Methodist church.

ORONO. At the Town Hall—Discourse by Rev. George R. Palmer.

OLDTOWN. Baptist Church—Discourse by Rev. George M. Preston.

EAST ORRINGTON. Congregational church—Rev. J. Edwards, Preacher.

DEXTER. Congregational Chapel—Discourse by the Pastor of the Free Baptist church.

These moonlight evenings are beautiful.

The Police Court took a vacation yesterday.

The dust blew in stifling clouds yesterday.

Potatoes sold for 70 and 72 cents per bushel yesterday.

Quite a number of vessels have arrived during the last two or three days.

The Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad directors hold a meeting to-morrow.

Some of the boys found a place on Essex street yesterday to use their skates.

The first of a course of Assemblies will be given in Music Hall this evening.

Winterport market—Potatoes 55 to 75c.; oats 40 to 45c.; hay pressed $10 to $14.

There were fifteen vessels above the draw of the E. & N. A. Railway bridge yesterday.

Ice formed about as thick as a sheet of paper in Kenduskeag stream Tuesday night.

The Western train was about an hour late last evening, having lost time along the line.

The mortuary record for November shows that ten persons have died during the month.

The Hersey Light Infantry of Oldtown, give their annual ball in the Town Hall this evening.

The "Pound party" at the Home for Aged Women, was a very pleasant and successful affair.

Leavitt advertises an auction sale of furniture, carpets, etc, to occur at 10 o'clock to-morrow forenoon.

The new concrete sidewalk on Baptist hill is a great improvemeet over the mass of old planks it replaces.

Those having skates they wish put in the best possible condition, will notice the advertisement of W. C. Webber.

A number of truck teams worked all nigh drawing goods to vessels which are rapidly loading to leave the river.

President Chamberlain, of Bowdoin College, will spend Thanksgiving with his brother, T. D. Chamberlain, 69 Essex-st.

The City Clerk during the month of November has recorded the fact that forty-six hearts intend or intended to beat as twenty-three.

The Post Office will be open to-day for the transaction of business from half past eight to half past nine this morning and at the usual hour this evening.

The Ladies' Crusade will give their annual Levee in Norombega during the coming month. For the evening's entertainment they give Mother Goose's Party.

It is expected that the Turbine waterwheels will be turning the pumping apparatus at the water-works in a few days, as all the attachments will be put on for that purpose.

On yesterday the market was well filled with Thanksgiving goods and the prices of poultry ranged as follows: turkeys 11½ to 15 cts per lb., extra lots 18 cts; chickens 10 to 13 cents; geese 70 to 90 cents and $1; ducks per pair 60 cts to $1.

Those meditating a shooting trip to-day should read chapter 98, section 1 of the game laws relative to the killing of woodcock, ruffled grouse and partridges. Ignorance of the close time and penalties is no excuse for breaking the law.

The Directors of the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad made a tour along the line yesterday, looking up the rolling stock and other matters of special interest now that the road is to be run by the stockholders independently of the E. & N. A. Railway.

As will be seen by referenco to another column, Mr. B. E. Walker will lecture on temperance at City Hall on Monday evening next, and all interested in the cause should see that he has a full house, as he speaks on this occasion for his own benefit.

A correspondent at Greenville writes: Ice formed in the Cove at the foot of the Lake Tuesday night, so the steamers are unable to get to the wharves, and the remaining portion of the lumbermen's supplies will have to be hauled to the landings above.

To-day being a legal holiday and in order that the overworked printer may enjoy it with his family, no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow morning. The counting room of the office will not be open for the transaction of business after 9 o'clock this morning.

We have received the annual catalogue of Colby University, by which we learn that the Senior class numbers 17, the Junior, 24, the Sophomore 30, Freshmen 38. There is one Bangor boy in the Sophomore class, Hannibal E. Hamlin, and one in the Freshman class, Hugh Ross Chaplin.

Mr. James Littlefield, a former resident and business man of this city, on yesterday assumed the duties of Agent of the Sanford's Independent Steamboat Line at this port, Mr. Loomis Taylor, who has so acceptably filled the position for many years, having resigned. Mr. Littlefield is well known in this city and will be a popular man for the place.

The first German of the season occurred at Andrews' Academy last evening, and was a very pleasant affair indeed, the cozy hall being all that the most fastidious dancer could ask, and the music by Messrs. Andrews, McQuown and Kimball, it is unnecessary to add, was superb. Twenty or more couples participated and the figures were led by Mr. F. P. Wood.

The antiquarian supper and dance to be given at City Hall Friday evening by the Ladies of St. John's Episcopal Parish, will be a very pleasant occasion, as they have spared no pains in this direction. The hall will be put in excellent condition for dancing and the supper will be ample for the hungry multitude. The beans and brown bread will come steaming hot from the Boston Bakery opposite the hall.

OPIUM. The Lewiston Journal says: A committee of the Cumberland County Medical Society have issued a circular which should have a wide circulation, warning persons against taking the "Opium Antidotes" offered in the market. The investigations of the society show that these antidotes contain morphine in large and most destructive quantities, and only serve to increase the appetite for opium, until finally it becomes unconquerable.

Until further notice the steamer Charles Houghton, Capt. O. R. Ingraham, will leave Commercial Wharf Rockland, for this city and intermediate landings on the river, Thursday. Returning will leave Bangor for Rockland and intermediate landings on Friday, arriving in Rockland in season to connect with the 1.40 p. m. train west. On and after Tuesday, Dec. 5th, will leave Rockland every Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock for this city and intermediate landings, returning every Wednesday, leaving at 6 o'clock a. m.

THE WEEKLY COURIER. This morning THE WEEKLY COURIER for the current week may be found at the counting room of this office. This issue contains thirty-nine columns of reading matter,—a volume of itself—embracing the political news of the past seven days, editorial matter, full State and local news, choice miscellany, market reports, etc. If you have an absent friend, you can hardly find a more fitting thing to send, as it will give him or her a vast amount of interesting matters about home that you would be hardly able to mention in your letters.

Y. M. T. U. MEETING. The Union temperance prayer meeting held in the vestry of the Union street Methodist church last evening, was a gratifying success to the friends of the cause. Representatives from all the temperance organizations of the city were present and took part in the exercises. The meetings in City Hall this day will be held as follows: Morning prayer meeting from 9 to 10 o'clock; afternoon prayer meeting from 3 to 5 o'clock; evening mass meeting commences at 7½ o'clock, at which Mrs. M. L. Hoskins of Oldtown, will deliver an address. Mrs. Hoskins is well known as an earnest, efficient Christian worker in the cause, and no one should miss the opportunity of hearing her. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged at the evening meeting to defray expenses. The churches and all the temperance organizations of the city have been invited to take part in these meetings, and it is hoped that the result will be a grand success for temperance in our city.

From Calais.

Mr. C. H. Tainter, of the Bangor Theological Seminary, has been holding a series of Reform Temperance meetings at Calais with very gratifying success. Several hundred persons have signed the general pledge, and on Tuesday evening a Reform Club of sixty members was organized with the following officers: A. Q. Hill, President; Daniel Downey, Albert H. Young, Ezra Connely, Vice Presidents; Wm. Edson, Secretary; George Rideout, Treasurer. The members are all persons who had been addicted to the excessive use of liquor, and their reform is subject for congratulation.

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 8½ to 9 P M Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A M

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $32.80 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

All Letters must be Prepaid.—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS.

After January 1st, 1876, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week, less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices, i.e. papers coming to this office, if published in County are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.

Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters and papers, pre payment compulsory, merchandise limited to 8 oz, postage 10 cents

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

Transient newspapers and magazines regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation at nominal rates and all printed matter of the third class except unsealed circulars, shall be admitted to, and be transmitted in the mails at the rate of one cent for every two ounces or fractional part thereof, and one cent for each two additional ounces or fractional part thereof, and the sender of any article of the third class of mail matter may write his or her name or address therein, or on the outside thereof with the word "from" above or preceding the same or may write briefly or print on any package the number and names of the articles inclosed. Publishers of newspapers and periodicals may print on the wrappers of newspapers or magazines sent from the office of publication to regular subscribers the time to which subscription therefor has been paid and addresses upon postal cards and unsealed circulars may be either written, printed or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender

On unsealed circulars merchandise and all mailable matter of the third class other than that designated in the aforegoing section, postage will be charged as heretofore, one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week If not claimed in one month thereafter they are then forwarded to Washington

MONEY ORDERS.

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person, at the same time by additional orders.

RATES.

On orders not exceeding $15,	10 cents
" over $15 and not exceeding $30,	15 cents
" over $30 and not exceeding $40,	20 cents.
" over $40 and not exceeding $50,	25 cents.

Money Orders can also be obtained on England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Switzerland and German States.

Never put Money in a Letter—Always Procure a Money Order

If money is to be remitted, a Postal Money Order should be obtained If upon points where there is no Money Order Office, then the letter should be Registered. Money should never be enclosed in an ordinary letter

Office Hours—From 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

REGISTRY DEPARTMENT

All valuable letters should be Registered unless a Money Order is obtained Under the present system of Registration, letters are transmitted with perfect safety

Letters may be Registered by paying postage in full and a Registration fee in stamps, for—

United States,	10 cents.
Great Britain and Ireland,	10 cents.
Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia,	10 cents
Germany and German Austrian Postal Union, embracing the German and Austrian States,	10 cents.

First Class Family Newspaper

In politics the papers will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word Fearless and outspoken in the treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what they believe to be right, they will avoid intolerance and make their appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year about to open will be fruitful of unusually important political events bearing upon the future of our country, and unprecedented interest will be excited in the

OF THE

Centennial Year.

The celebrations of the Hundredth Anniversary of our National Independence will also be conducted upon a magnificent scale and the public will wish to be kept fully informed of the progress of those great events It will be our aim to afford our readers the earliest and most reliable information and to favor only such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people.

HOME INTERESTS

as affected by the development of the resources of Maine will receive special attention and whatever is calculated to stimulate or benefit

Agriculture and Manufactures

in the State will be heartily encouraged We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will be sure of A Welcome in Every Family Circle.

To advertisers our columns open one of the best fields in New England, our circulation being the largest of any paper in this section, among the best classes of the people, and as

greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers it will give rest to your selves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT A CURE when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary all are delighted with its operation and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter WHAT WE DO KNOW after years of experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation [illegible] NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in [illegible]

Thousands of Cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity and gives tone and energy to the whole system It will almost instantly relieve

THE SOUTH CAROLINA SITUATION.

It is impossible at best to get anything like a truthful account of the events in South Carolina from day to day by the regular despatches which are all intensely partisan, and the hiatus occasioned by the non publication of our paper yesterday, renders it necessary to "pick up the dropped stitches" in order to approximate an understanding of the despatches printed to-day

Thursday's telegraphic reports were vague and somewhat contradictory, but the main events seem to have occurred about as follows The regular House had adjourned Wednesday to meet at the usual hour Thursday noon Shortly after 10 o'clock the Democrats entered the State House in a body the troops on guard making no resistance and they pushed at once for the door of the House There a Sergeant at arms objected to their entrance but those in front exhibited their regular certificates of election and were allowed to pass when a general rush was made and the whole body, including the Laurens and Edgefield Democrats forced their way in Only a few Republican members were in the Hall, and Wallace claiming to be the Democratic Speaker at once took the chair, and proceeded to open a session Shortly after Speaker Mackey and the Sergeant-at-arms, with other Republican members, appeared and he at once took the platform and requested Wallace to vacate the chair This was refused, and Speaker Mackey protested against a disorderly intrusion and ordered the Sergeant at arms to clear the platform Wallace gave similar orders to the Democratic Sergeant-at arms and there followed a series of order and counter orders from each The utmost confusion prevailed, members on each side addressing Mackey and Wallace as Speaker at the same time Finally Speaker Mackey sent a message to the Governor that the proceedings of the House were disturbed by men not members and requesting their ejection Some of the despatches state that Gen Ruger sent word to Wallace that he should eject the men from Laurens and Edgefield at noon Friday before the counting of the votes, but this point is somewhat vaguely reported It proved sufficient, however, to bring out an insolent card from ex rebel General John B Gordon, of Georgia, Wade Hampton and Haskell, of the Democratic Committee calling Gen Ruger to account for pledges made to them, forsooth—whoever they may be—and assuming to instruct him in his duties Both parties remained in the Hall all night and according to later despatches all day Friday, maintaining the same relative positions

It is noteworthy that Wallace declared himself "legally elected Speaker by a majority of the House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina duly sworn in in Carolina Hall Nov 28 " The utter invalidity of this claim is obvious The full membership is 124, of this number regular certificates are held by 60 Republicans and [illegible] Democrats and in the case of nine others no certificates were issued The Democrats had therefore but 55 certified members when they 'organized,' or 56 if the Republican they first claimed joined them at that first stage and as 63 is a majority of the whole membership, which they claim is required for a quorum, they could only assume to have it by counting in members the 9 Democratic candidates for election who were refused certificates by the Board of Canvassers on the ground of gross fraud and to whom the Supreme Court also refused to issue certificates [illegible] even those Judges dared [illegible] so flagrant an outrage The [illegible] have nothing whatever except copies of a mandamus which was never served, addressed to a board which had ceased to exist officially at the time [illegible] and they are as utterly without credentials, as would be a [illegible] signed by the Khedive of Egypt The Boston Advertiser well says, "The Democratic body at Columbia, calling itself a House of Representatives, has nothing to show for itself but copies of paper taken from the court showing certain returns rejected for cause by the canvassing board On these returns two [illegible] are represented which have no legal right there and which no State in the Union or of its representative government in the civilized world, would tolerate for a day "

The above outline of the situation will enable our readers to form some sort of an idea of the meaning of such despatches as are sent out from Columbia, whence all news come in very much such shape as it used to when that delectable city was "officially recognized as 'within the rebel lines "

THE NEXT HOUSE

Official action has been had in regard to the Third Massachusetts District, in which the election of a member of the House of Representatives has been claimed by both parties The result as declared by the Executive Council is, Walbridge A Field, Republican, 9 320 Benjamin Dean Democrat 9 31[illegible] all others, 6 of which, "Field" has 3 and 'William A Field' 1 This gives the seat to Mr Field In the Third District of Missouri, the election is given to Mr Lyons Metcalf, Republican, we had previously credited it to Mr R C Frost, Democrat This change leaves the Republicans in the Forty-fifth Congress, 141, the Democrats 149 and three yet to be elected in New Hampshire The Democratic majority is, on the present showing, 8 and will probably be reduced to 5 The bearing of this fact on the preposterous claim of an enormous popular majority by the Democrats is too plain to require pointing out

Speaking of "carpet-baggers" will suggest to a great many people that one Senator Gordon of Georgia, formerly of the Confederate Army, and later introduced to public notice by the Ku-Klux investigation committee in connection with the operations of that Klan, is making himself very conspicuous and officious in the "local self-government" of South Carolina just now In familiar parlance he seems to be "running the Democratic machine" in the latter State, and as he is rather a mischievous person it might be well for some strict-constructionist to take him by the ear and request him to subside.

Says the Boston Advertiser of Thursday "So far as the President is concerned, the country owes him nothing but gratitude for the promptness with which he has acted, and the admirable advice he has given in the brief and soldier-like letters he has written since the election. The peace of the nation is in his keeping and he does not intend that it shall be broken "

THE LOUISIANA HORRORS.

It is a curious fact that what most startled the community in connection with the Louisiana horrors as exposed before the Returning Board was not the atrocity of the crimes, for they were but samples of what has been going on in the South with the knowledge of the North for years, but it was the evidence that at last there had been found a few prominent Democrats candid enough, and with enough of common humanity in their make-up, to emphatically denounce barbarities that outrival the worst of the savagery in Bulgaria. We confess, that for our own part, we were less impressed with what Gov. Palmer or Mr. Smith might think or be betrayed into expressing under the momentary impulse of a horror too strong for partisan control, than by the frightful facts of themselves, which not only brand the organizers and executors of such fiendish political campaigning with infamy, but put the stain of disgrace on a national civilization that will permit such infamies to be perpetrated systematically anywhere on American soil. We have little or no faith in the candor or the humanity of Democratic politicians where party interests are invoked, whether the men be moss-grown Bourbons or those rendered more bitter and intolerant by apostacy from a better faith And we are not surprised to learn that Palmer and the others have been readily convinced that their exhibitions of feeling were "hurting the party," and that under the influence of the soothing hospitalities of the 'gentlemanly' leaders of assassins they have been persuaded that the outrages which appalled them may possibly not have any 'political significance

But it is not with these men but with the evidence, that we have to deal and the damning facts cannot be wiped out or explained away The Democratic counsel after a night of desperate consultation assailed the poor wreck of a woman on her second appearance before the Board, with extraordinary effort to break down her testimony under cross-examination, but they succeeded only in showing how utterly terrified the witness had been by the murderous violence of which she had been a victim Senator Sherman, Mr Hale and other prominent citizens who witnessed the whole examination regard the shocking evidence as unshaken by the efforts of the Democratic lawyers, and the Republicans declare that there is ample proof of the attempt to intimidate the unfortunate woman into a retraction by threatening her life on the evening after she gave her testimony

We wish our readers to examine some portions of the evidence, showing how the campaign for "Tilden and the Solid South" was carried on in Louisiana. The colored woman we have referred to, named Eliza Pinkston was brought before the Board on a cot Her husband and babe were murdered before her eyes by the "bull-dozers" a few days before the election, she has herself a bullet wound in her breast, which passed through her lung and out of her back, a deep gash from a knife in her neck, a bullet wound in one leg a cut with a knife from the hip nearly to the knee, and her head is covered with wounds one of which was given with the butt end of a pistol and the other with an axe. The cords in one of her feet are also severed She was left for dead, and how she has survived so long seems to be a miracle as for two or three weeks she has been almost constantly hunted by the Tilden men who murdered her husband and babe She has been spared, however, to be a witness, by her wounds as well as her words, against her hellish tormentors Here is a portion of her testimony

Q Do you live in Ward One, known as the Island in the Parish of Ouachita? A I don t know nothing about wards, I live in Ouachita Parish, at Hugh Young's place

Q Do you know what has become of your husband, Henry Pinkston? A Yes, Sir

Q Was he killed in the day or night time? A He was killed in the night in the morning, before day

Q Was he in the house and in bed when his murderers attacked him A Yes, Sir

Q Give the names of those who attacked him, and the manner in which he was treated and killed? A Dr Young was the first one that attacked at my door

Mr Dory Please propound the question so she may understand it

Gen Anderson You say that Dr Young was there?

Witness He was the first one, they all rode by, thirty or forty of them, and they said, "Is Henry in? A friend of Henry's is come to guide him to Monroe," I said, "But, Doctor, you are not Henry's friend " I peeped through the crack, and Earler burst the door open, Capt Craig cried out "Gag him, he votes no Radical ticket, he may vote it in hell, he has voted it thus far and may vote it no further," they came in the house and gagged him, that is when they cut him on the leg, I said, "Oh Lord! don't kill my husband, that is all I have got," one man struck me in the face and on the head with his pistol they said "Leave the ——," I said, "That is my husband," I grabbed Dr Young, and he struck me with his pistol and knocked me down on the hearth

President Wells How many others besides Dr Young?

Witness—There were several I was a stranger in that parish I knowed no more of them than what each other called their names Frank Dennis I knew him because he had his nose off, he was the only one and Capt Tebault, that I knowed personally

Q How did those parties attack and kill him? A They tied his legs together and dragged him out of the door and shot him seven times, they had a pocket-handkerchief over his mouth

President Wells—How many times did they shoot him?

The Witness—Every time they shot him he drew his breath, they shot him seven times

Q State what those parties told your husband about fooling them as to joining the Democratic club? A They told him he had fooled them thus far, but he would fool them no further; one man said, "Hurrah for Brewster," and said "I reckon by daylight Brewster would be —— sorry that he got into this parish "

Q Was not Henry Pinkston an active Republican? and was he not killed on that account? A He was killed because he was a Republican, they finally got him Tebault said, "Give him ——, the ——, he will vote no more Radical tickets, if he does, he will vote in —— "

Q State how you were treated, and who ill-treated you. A I will tell you. The Doctor—the same man that shot Henry—shot me once. Some of them—I do not know who they were * * * * *

President Wells—Did you see those that shot you?

Witness—Yes, sir they shot me twice When they came in the house they told me to put my baby down, I told them no, sir.

Q What became of your child, if it was killed, who did it? A. They came into the house and said, "Put your baby down," I said "Oh, no, sir, what do you want to kill me for? I am nothing but a woman, if you kill me, kill the whole of us " They cut my baby's throat from ear to ear, I raised my hands, I let my baby fall, * * * * * * *

I ran under the bed when he shot me in the leg; they caught me by the leg and pulled me out and broke the bed, they cut me with the ax, one man said, "If you are going to kill the woman, don't be bothering with her," and they wanted to kill me, and he cut me with a knife; I struck him and it flew up and they never saw it again; they got another knife and they cut and stabbed me, and they cut me on the legs with the ax and on the side.

At this point the woman unfastened her dress and exposed her breast, which was all cut up and a most horrible sight to look at. The effort of the examination caused her to faint, and the examination was therefore delayed for a few moments until she had recovered.

Q. In your last answer you stated that your child was killed. What became of your child's body? A. They threw it in the lake, and we did not find it again under eleven days.

Q. Did not many colored voters leave their homes at night through fear of these armed men riding over the parish at night? A. Yes, sir; I went to a heap of people's houses, and they were all lying out in the woods to keep from the bull-dozers. Two stayed up at the gin-houses; both were women

We have omitted portions of the testimony which are too horrible for publication, but that which is given is enough to thrill any civilized being with indignation and disgust Her evidence was corroborated by Coleman, a colored man, who was under the house when Pinkston was killed and was afterward shot and left for dead by the same gang.

One of the colored Republicans murdered in Ouachita was Henry Young Mounted men had been through the negro quarters, telling the blacks that they must vote the Democratic ticket or they could not live Young refused to comply with the following result

"A committee consisting of Dr. Young, John Baker, Henry Collins and a Mr. Tidwell were appointed to wait on him and kill him They went on the Saturday preceding the election to his house, broke open his door and killed him right there in the presence of his wife and in his own house His wife made the remark, 'Gentlemen, don t kill him ' For this they stabbed her so severely that she died the next day The woman had a child ten months old in her arms The inhuman fiends took the child, and in the presence of the wounded and dying mother and father, knocked its brains out against the wall of the house "

Another of the victims was a colored man named Zekial Glover, a young and intelligent man living in East Feliciana — He was visited the Saturday night before election and taken from his home and flogged We give a portion of his pitiful narrative in his own words, which have the impress of truth and sincerity in their simple phraseology

"When I came out of de house I was fixin' to go to bed, and had nothing on 'cept my shirt and drawers Dey tied me to a beech tree cut beech limbs all roun' and five or six whipped me at a time Dey said I had never been whipped befor' in my life an I could stan' 500 I hollered Dey whipped me till I fainted an' couldn't stan Den dey said I was playin' possum, an' dey laid on again I fainted while I was tied to de tree I can't tell how long they whipped me, dey whipped me awhile, den sat down an' rested an' whipped me again I can't tell how long de time was When a man is in misery he tinks de time is purty long My wife tried to follow me, but dey left Jim McAdams son of old McAdams on de road, an' he drove her back — Old McAdams owns de place I live on — He knew I was goin' to be whipped He said buldozin' was one of de greatest things ever invented After dey got thro' whippin', dis Doc Roberts talked to me awhile an' tole me 'twas best for me not to report it, as I'd see trouble an' next time dey got me they d put a rope roun' my neck Some of em said dey mustn't forget to go up an kill ole John Brooks — He was on Miss Amanda Woodward's place, an' dey also talked of killin' Gerard Nighton, Franklin Davis an' Frank Davis —dat's de ole man's son—'cause dey wouldn't join de Democratic club I tole some of de men dat whipped me a day or two befor' dat I wouldn't join de Democratic club or vote de Democratic ticket, dat I d die first Dat's why dey whipped me I knew all de men dat whipped me — Dey's all my neighbors, live close by me Doc Roberts tends sick folks He lives in in de Eighth Ward, half a mile from me Alexander Doty don t do nothin', but drinks whiskey an' loafs roun' de grocery William East live alongside me He's on dat side of de fence and I on dis John Hart lives close by me John Norwood worked in de saw mill with me William Brown lives near de saw mill Jim McAdams is de son of de man what owns de place I live on Dey went off an' left me My back was all bloody, an' so was my shirt when I got hum My wife was skeered mos' to death I lef' hum de same night an' tole Brooks and Nighton an' de other dat dey was after 'em an' dey had better git out Dey didn t catch em dat I know of "

Glover's body attested the truthfulness of his statements His back and sides and thighs were cut and torn and from his neck to his knees he was covered with scars

Benjamin James was the United States Deputy Marshal at the Third Ward poll in Ouachita, and as constable of the ward had charge of the ballot box He lives at Monroe, twelve miles from the polls, and started from home on horseback at one o clock on the morning of election day to go to the polls Two miles out he encountered several armed whites who disarmed him but after some colloquy permitted him to pass under guard Three times along the road armed men were encountered, a countersign was given, and James with his guard was allowed to pass Then they came to a point where a body of eighty armed men were encamped around a fire What followed is thus told in James' sworn testimony

"Very soon Joe Mitchell and Bob Endom came up within about twenty-five feet of me, and they talked together a little while, and I heard Joe Mitchell say 'All right' and Bob Endom rode off Joe Mitchell said 'Boys, get on your horses ' He came up to me and said 'I wish I had a double-barreled gun,' and then marched on down the road I said, Shall I ride or walk? He replied, 'You may ride, or let your pony be there ' I turned away from the fire and got about ten steps I then broke and ran, for I knew they were going to kill me by this conversation I started for the wood They then commenced shooting, and Joe Mitchell was right after me on a horse, shooting a pistol at me I got about thirty or forty feet from Col Pargoud's fence, and Joe fired his gun at me and hit me in the right arm I don't know whether I was shot before or not, there was so much shooting Joe Mitchell, who was between the company and myself, was calling out to the men, 'Don't shoot me! Be careful, I say " I kept right on and got over the fence, but when I got to the ditch I fell in it. I crawled up on the further side and was so weak I could go no further, and Joe was at the fence He said, Hold on boys' I'll fix him, damn him!" He climbed over and ran round me, and placed his pistol between my head and the ground and fired I became insensible then and did not recover for some time, I don't know how long The ball had glanced from my temple, but had not made a deep wound Altogether I have five wounds—two in the arms, one in the back of the head, one in the temple and one in the hip When I came to I could see no one around, and I started away, but when I had gone a short distance I fainted from loss of blood and pain The blood from the wound in my temple ran into my mouth and nearly strangled me I laid there until daylight in a ditch The election at the Logwood poll was not held, owing to the fact that I was shot. Their object in attempting to kill me could have been nothing else than a desire to prevent the election, as I had never done any harm to any one of them."

What think our readers of these horrors in a State of the American Union, perpetrated by a political party aspiring to obtain control of the National Government? And we have given above but a few extracts from a single page of a single chapter of the bloody history of Louisiana since the surrender of Appomattox! Our pages would not suffice to give more than a ghastly glimpse of the frightful succession of tragedies in that terror-ridden State. We cannot close our citations more appropriately than by quoting the words of the special correspondent of the New York Times, a gentleman who went to New Orleans disposed to give the Louisiana white-leaguers the benefit of all doubts, but who has been astounded by the evidence of atrocities perpetrated upon the colored race. In concluding a long letter filled with unimpeachable testimony of brutal outrages, he says

"The reading public must, by this time, be tolerably familiar with the means by which the Southern Democrats obtain results like the above. It is known in a general way, for instance, that in South Carolina armed bodies of men calling themselves rifle clubs rode through the country by day and by night driving unoffending black Republicans from their cabins, threatening them with death if they voted the Republican ticket, and beating and otherwise outraging them to enforce these threats and give them what is called in the South "a fair warning." It is also known in a general way that the same tactics were resorted to by the White League, and other friends of Mr Tilden in this State While all these things are generally known however, the people of the North have no idea of the atrocity of some of the crimes that were committed in the remote parishes of Louisiana during the recent political campaign. Some of them are almost too horrible for belief, and yet they have all been proved by testimony that cannot be doubted or questioned. The dead bodies of the murdered men and the bleeding wounds of helpless women cry out against the criminals "

These New Orleans bishops and bank presidents are out in another proclamation affirming that Louisiana is a paradise of loyalty and order, and that the distinguishing trait of the white Democracy is ardent affection for the colored race and an impulsive desire to protect the freedmen's right to the ballot, or words to that effect. We think we heard from these gentlemen in Gen Butler's time

A Washington lawyer in a strong letter to the N Y Tribune maintaining the entire illegality of the interference of the South Carolina Court with the State Canvassing Board, says "One of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States said to me this morning in speaking of this case, what any lawyer knows to be true, that the court had no more right to imprison the members of that board than the board had to order the arrest of the Judges for interfering with the performance of their duty It is only while acting within their jurisdiction that courts are entitled to be respected "

THE SWEDISH

Lady Vocal Quartet,

OF BOSTON

The Swedish Ladies Quartet made its first appearance in this city last evening at Music Hall Notwithstanding the favorable report that had preceded the Quartet from Europe the ladies performance was a delightful surprise. The rendering of an English love song in the most faultless English quite unlike that of Mme Nilsson—gave a more direct and powerful impression of the surpassing beauty of the artists finish and power achieved by the Swedish Ladies [illegible] —Boston Transcript

Sale of tickets commences Wednesday morning at D Bugbee & Co's Bookstore. Tickets to the Course, $1 50 and $2.00 The Course tickets will also be offered for sale by Comrades of Post 12 who will canvass the city, commencing Friday Dec 1st.

FIRE IN NEW ORLEANS.

Three Blocks Destroyed.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1. A fire broke out early this morning at the corner of St. Bernard and Claiborne streets It has reached and crossed Esplanade street, and it is still burning at noon. Three blocks thus far have been destroyed.

An Extensive Conflagration

Later—As far as could be ascertained the following is the number of houses destroyed by the fire here this morning — 20 on Columbus street, 24 on Robertson street, 32 on Villere street, 3 on Marais street, and 10 and St. Anna Church on Esplanade street. The dwelling of Auguste and Amadee Couterie, Abrams, Roccaclark and Crozat superb residences on Esplanade street were consumed. Most of the buildings burned were small cottages and hundreds of people lost all they possessed Leon Detrieux, a member of the fire department, had his leg broken in three places.

The Colored-Scape-Goat as Usual.

GEN. RUGER'S REPORT TO WASHINGTON.

Both Parties Still in the House at Last Reports.

Both Parties in the House.

NEW YORK, Dec 1 The Herald prints the following from Columbia "At 1 A M the Houses are still in session, members are sleeping, smoking, conversing, and a few listening to the eloquence of a negro from Charleston county, known as Fancy Bill the Santee orator Both parties are holding the fort till to-morrow Democrats know if they go out they will not be readmitted, and they propose to stay until 12 M to-morrow, when the Laurens and Edgefield delegations will doubtless be ejected by Federal soldiers"

Anxious to Trade and Trying the Friendship Dodge.

The Herald says that last evening Gen Bradley L. Johnson, who was at Princeton with Secretary Cameron and between whom good relations since have been kept up, telegraphed him stating the actual condition of things here. He stated that there was no danger of breach of the peace, and that differences would be adjusted, if at all, by legal, peaceable and parliamentary methods, that their differences and their action had, and could have, no reference or influence in any manner on the election of Presidential Electors or members of Congress He pledged the Secretary that there was no danger of a breach of peace, and asked him as legal adviser of the President and as a citizen in favor of equal rights of States and citizens not to allow the army to interfere

Report that Gen Ruger Has Asked for Instructions

The Tribune's special says there is less excitement in Columbia than at any previous period Gen Ruger has asked the President to decide whether the House as organized by Speaker Mackey is the legally organized body, if it is he will enforce his orders and eject the Laurens and Edgefield delegations to-day before the votes for Governor are counted Democrats now admit their error in not taking their seats Tuesday Yesterday's events prove that they would have captured enough votes to have given them control They could have repaired the error yesterday by cutting loose from the violent Edgefield policy

Democratic Despatches—The Mistake Made

COLUMBIA, S C Dec 1 Both District Attorney Corbin and Judge Settle, in an interview with a correspondent, say the Democrats made a fatal mistake in withdrawing from the Legislature By remaining they could have easily have overcome the majority against them, but have now thrown away their chances. Chamberlain's success, however, is not assured and will not be until after his inauguration, though all chances favor him

Hoping to Capture Some Votes.

Later—The situation is unchanged — Both bodies occupy the State House, and at 1 30 to-day the military had not interfered It is now likely that enough Republicans will unite with the Democrats to insure a settlement of the whole matter

A Cabinet Conference in Washington

WASHINGTON, Dec 1 There was a full meeting of the Cabinet to-day and the session was continued for more than three hours The principal questions discussed related to events now occurring at the Capital of South Carolina, based on a telegram received to-day from Gen. Ruger, of which the following is an extract

Despatch from General Ruger—Why Troops were Posted in the State House

COLUMBIA, S C, Dec 1.

Gen W T Sherman, or the Secretary of War, Washington, D. C

I have carefully abstained from interfering with the organization of the House from the first. On application of the Governor and on my own belief of the necessity therefor, for the preservation of the peace, I placed troops in the State House, but not in the rooms of the Assembly in either of the Houses

How the Soldiers Came to be Stationed at the Door of the House.

On the day of the meeting it came about that for a time soldiers were placed on either side of the door of the entrance to the House of Representatives under the following circumstances

A person at the door of the House and who claimed authority to examine the certificates of those claiming to be members prior to their admission to the Hall, but who I think had no legal authority for so doing, applied to the officer in command of the troops placed in the corridor, for the preservation of the peace and for assistance, on the ground that he was being pressed upon and could not perform his duty.

The Soldiers Withdrawn from the Doors

The soldiers were placed as stated. As soon as I was fully informed of the circumstances I ordered the soldiers withdrawn as I had previously informed Gov. Chamberlain that I should confine my action to the preservation of the peace, and should do nothing with reference to keeping the doors of the rooms of the meeting of both houses, or the rooms themselves, unless it became necessary because of a breach of the peace which the civil officers of both houses should be unable to restore

The Story about Soldiers Examining Certificates a Canard.

No act was done by the soldiers except that of their presence as stated, but whilst they were so present persons claiming the right of entrance under the certificate of the Clerk of the Supreme Court were refused admission. THOS. H. RUGER,

Commanding Department.

The Cabinet Decision not Divulged.

After the adjournment of the Cabinet meeting, inquiry was made of the several members to ascertain the result of their deliberations, but they declined to make any communications whatever upon the subject. It is known, however, that additional instructions of an important character have been sent to Gen. Ruger.

No Change in the Status at 6 P. M.

A despatch from Columbia, dated at 6 o'clock this evening says, "Everything remains unchanged. Both parties in the House are expecting Federal interference. Gen. Ruger has done nothing as yet with regard to excluding members from Edgefield and Laurens counties from the floor of the House. There can scarcely be a change before to-morrow."

LOUISIANA.

Democratic Figures Again—Their Claims Whittling Down

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. The Tribune correspondent states, that the Democrats have compiled all returns opened by the Returning Board. There are 20 uncontested parishes and in these Hayes has a majority of 7027 and Packard 6823. In 28 contested parishes, including Orleans, on all of which the Board has yet to pass, but excluding about a dozen polls from which Supervisors arbitrarily and illegally neglected to make returns, Tilden's majority of votes, actually cast, is 12,207 and that of Nichols, 12,847. The figures in seven parishes, five Democrats and two Republicans have not been announced by the Board although returns from them all have been opened. These figures are substantially the ones published by the Democratic committee two weeks ago.

Preparing Reports.

A New Orleans special says the Republican and Democratic Committees have been hard at work preparing reports for reference to the President and Congress

A Democratic Mare's-Nest

NEW ORLEANS Dec 1. It is stated that owing to reported disaffection in the Returning Board, Republicans have concluded to place as the fifth man on the Board, Gen Hugh J Campbell, at present Judge of this District Court His election is problematical The new imbroglio is said to be due to a contest between Kellogg and Pinchback for Senatorial honors

The Returning Board

met with the usual attendance except the Republican Committee who were absent Two boxes of the East Baton Rouge Parish were opened showing Tilden Electors 437, Hayes 19 There was but little done when the Board adjourned till to-morrow.

Correspondence

[We have received at a late hour copies of the correspondence between the visiting Republicans and Democrats, and a long address published by the visiting Democrats Senator Sherman wrote Governor Palmer et als that the Republicans were desirous of forwarding to the President copies of all the evidence, but having no means of obtaining copies of depositions made outside in favor of Democratic candidates, they courteously asked to be furnished them that they might present the whole case to be printed together Gov Palmer's reply in very stilted fashion said they had no assurance that the facts would be laid before the people if furnished and declining to be "the medium of communication between the representatives of the President and citizens who claim to have been chosen Electors by the people of Louisiana"

The address signed by Palmer Trumbull and others sets forth what they have done in Louisiana and gives a statement of the face of the returns which 84,326 for the highest and 82 108 for the lowest Tilden Elector and 77 023 for the highest and 74 642 for the lowest Hayes Elector The remainder of the document is a Democratic stump speech, indicating in advance that many of the votes will be thrown out, assailing the laws of Louisiana and the Returning Board, and declaring that the outrages in the State had no connection with politics The quality of the logic may be inferred from their argument that the fact that the doctored returns from the "bulldozed" parishes represented as large a vote as usual is to be taken as evidence that voters were not kept from the polls" Ed Whig.]

FLORIDA

The Contested Cases

Our despatches from Florida are received just before going to press and we are able to give but a summary Before the Board of Canvassers Friday the Republicans produced the Clerk of Archer Precinct, in Alachua, who swore that 535 votes were fairly polled and the certificates regularly signed by Moore and Dukes, Inspectors. He described the election and counting with great particularity. He was born in Canada and educated at Buffalo, N Y P H Black, an Inspector at Archer, corroborated the testimony The Democrats attacked the Duval county returns, alleging a variety of errors and frauds The Republicans objected to Jackson on account of intimidation and fraud Senator Smalls testified direct contradiction of Duke's charge of bribery, and M McCane, a colored man, testified to being present when Duke signed the affidavit reciting the frauds at Archer precinct

The papers in other counties will be filed to-day, which is the last day for that purpose

LOCAL MATTERS.

Snow began falling at half past twelve o'clock this morning.

Public meeting of the Ladies Crusade at City Hall this evening

A detachment of the Jameson Guards was out target shooting Thursday.

The Hersey Light Infantry's annual Thanksgiving ball, at Oldtown, was largely attended.

There will be a Sabbath school Concert at the Essex st. Free Baptist church Sunday evening next.

Rev Dr H. E Robins, President of Colby University, will supply the pulpit of the Second Baptist Church to-morrow

Only one arrest for drunkenness was made Thursday, and the police report everything quiet in their line on that day

The opening assembly at Music Hall Thursday evening was a very successful affair, a large party of dancers being present

The Unitarian Society will soon resume their very pleasant "coffee parties" and continue them fortnightly through the winter

The Directors of the B & P Railroad met yesterday, but adjourned to ten o'clock this forenoon, when the stockholders will meet with them

The brig Katahdin, Capt Saunders, formerly first officer of the steamer Katahdin arrived at this port, Thursday, with salt from Turks Island

A Union Temperance Prayer Meeting will be held in the vestry of the Hammond street church to-morrow morning from 9 to 10 o'clock All are cordially invited

On Thursday the schooner Hero, lying in Kenduskeag stream near the E & N A Railway bridge, heeled over precipitating a part of her deck-load of hay into the water

On Sunday evening Rev. Mr Hazlewood by invitation will deliver a discourse on "The Influence of the Mother and the Child" The Second Baptist and Free Baptist congregations will unite in the service

The river was covered with ice yesterday, but it was too thin to form any obstruction Last night Ross & Howell's tugs were engaged in taking vessels out of the Kenduskeag, and a large number left the port

We have been informed that the regular meetings of the Art Association will be held on the third Tuesday of every month, also that Dr Hamlin's lecture on the Opal will be given at the Art Rooms next Friday evening

The rumor which has been current in Brewer that one Greenyear had been found in a grove not far away, with his throat cut, proves on investigation by Marshal Walker to be a mistake. The man has disappeared and is thought to be in Canada, —far far from those anxious to see him

At the annual meeting of the Glenburn Farmer's Club the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year Samuel P Jones, President, Mrs Samuel I Emery Vice President Wingate E Gibbs, Secretary, Horace Pendexter, Treasurer, Noah Johnson, Samuel I Emery, Mrs John H Allen Prudential Committee, Mrs Horace Pendexter, Librarian

RUNAWAY Yesterday afternoon a horse driven by a Mr Douty, of Veazie, started to run away near the National House throwing the driver from the vehicle so that his feet caught in some way and he was dragged quite a distance tearing his clothes off and badly bruising him He was taken into the hotel and cared for Meanwhile the horse continued running, and on coming into East Market square took the sidewalk, smashing a wagon near Hill's store, Granite block, throwing the horse down and finally falling himself Both horses escaped with bruises

THE ANTIQUARIAN SUPPER and dance given at City Hall last evening by the ladies of the St John's (Episcopal) Parish was a very successful and pleasant affair indeed The long tables in the hall were laden with excellent baked beans and brown bread, from the bakery across the street from the hall, doughnuts, superb coffee etc, etc, and they were kept well filled until past eight o'clock, when they were cleared from the room and dancing commenced, being participated in by a large number, all enjoying themselves to the utmost. The affair was altogether pleasant and successful, for which all praise is due the ladies who were unsparing in their efforts to make it so

THAT GUN. Recently a gentleman went into Messrs Ramsdell & Neal's gun store and procured a fine fowling piece for use up river, and he went up river, he spent several days hunting, he found game abundant, he kept trying to shoot it, his percussion caps exploded, but he failed to discharge the piece he kept trying until discouraged he returned and entering the store said to the proprietors that there was no hole through the tubes so that the caps could explode the charges They asked him if the gun was loaded and he stoutly averred that it was, that he put the charges in himself and reiterated his former statement. The gunsmith told him he must be mistaken about charging the piece and to prove it took the gun apart and let the gentleman look through the empty barrels, which were as clean as when taken from the shop, no powder or lead having been put in them. If one mentions the subject of gunning in that man's presence now he suddenly goes out to see a man

Police Court.

Thanksgiving Day.

Thursday, our annual Thanksgiving Day, was generally observed throughout the city, and little or no business was carried on during the day, though nearly all the stores were open in the evening. The weather was chilly, but not as cold as last year, there being snow sufficient for sleighing at that time. Union services were held in the following churches of the city during the forenoon, good congregations being present and appropriate discourses were delivered by the persons named:

Temperance meetings, well attended and very interesting, were held as follows

First Congregational—Discourse by Rev. Walter E. Darling of Kennebunk—Subject, The State of Maine.

Pine Street Methodist— Discourse by Rev Cyrus Stone, D. D.

Free Baptist—Discourse by Rev Mr Hazlewood.

St John's (Episcopal)—Sermon by the Rector, Rev. G. T. Packard.

In City Hall—Morning prayer meeting, from 9 to 10 o'clock, afternoon prayer meeting, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at 7½ in the evening, Mrs. M. L. Hoskins, of Oldtown, delivered a very interesting address, a good audience being present.

A very interesting Meeting was held by the Ladies' Crusade, assisted by the [illegible] George W. Snow, Esq., read [illegible] temperance poem, a very fine production, containing many passages of great poetic beauty, which added greatly to the interest of the occasion

Rev. G. R. Palmer delivered a very able Thanksgiving discourse in the Town Hall, at Orono, which is highly spoken of by the auditors

A correspondent writes The new and beautiful hall at Exeter, Mills, built the past season through the exertions of the Ladies' Literary Association, at that place, was opened to the public on Monday evening, Nov. 27th, with the following appropriate exercises The meeting was called to order by the President of the evening, Dr. S W L Chase, and prayer was offered by Mr G S Hill, after which followed a short address of welcome by the President of the Ladies Association Mrs I A Davis An historical account of Exeter and its early settlers was given by Hon Noah Barker of Corinth, and appropriate remarks were made by Mason S Palmer, Esq, of Corinth, F W Hill, L D Butters, E A Chandler and G S Hill, Esqs, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music by the Tibbetts Family

At the close of the Literary exercises all present adjourned to the room in the basement of the building, where a sumptuous repast had been provided of which after all had partaken there were several baskets full left After the inner man had been duly refreshed, a collection was taken at the suggestion of friends from other localities and $35 was contributed to the Ladies Fund The exercises were then brought to a close by all present who could sing, joining in singing America

The house was well filled, and all united in pronouncing it a very enjoyable and profitable occasion

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS

Will be found to possess those qualities necessary to the total eradication of all bilious attacks prompt to start the secretions of the liver and give a healthy tone to the entire system Indeed it is no ordinary discovery in medical science to have invented a remedy for these stubborn complaints, which develop all the results produced by a heretofore free use of calomel a mineral justly dreaded by mankind and acknowledged to be destructive in the extreme to the human system That the properties of certain vegetables comprise all the virtues of calomel without its injurious tendencies, is now an admitted fact, rendered indisputable by scientific researches, and those who use the Mandrake Pills will be fully satisfied that the best medicines are those provided by nature in the common herbs and roots of the fields

These pills open the bowels and correct all bilious derangements without salivation or any of the injurious effects of calomel or other poisons The secretion of bile is promoted by these pills as will be seen by the altered color of the stools, and disappearing of the sallow complexion and cleansing of the tongue

Purifies the Blood Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System

Its Medical Properties Are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor Tumors Cancer Cancerous Humor Erysipelas, Salt Rheum Syphilitic Diseases Canker Faintness at the Stomach and all diseases that arise from impure blood Sciatica Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism Neuralgia Gout and Spinal Complaints can only be effectually cured through the blood

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin Pustules Pimples Blotches Boils Tetter Scald Head and Ringworm VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure

For Pains in the Back Kidney Complaints Dropsy Female Weakness Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints It invigorates and strengthens the whole system acts upon the secretive organs allays inflammation cures ulceration and regulates the bowels

For Catarrh Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine It purifies the blood cleanses all of the organs and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families

In fact Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public

UNQUALIFIED APPRECIATION.

BOSTON Nov 18 1875.

H R STEVENS Esq

DEAR SIR—During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merit of VEGETINE My wife has used it for complaints attending a lady of delicate health with more beneficial results than anything else which she ever tried I have given it to my children under almost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit I have taken it myself with such great benefit that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness

While performing my duties as a Police Officer in this city, it has been my lot to fall in with a great deal of sickness I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetine, and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it Particularly in cases of a debilitated or impoverished state of the blood its effects are really wonderful, and for all complaints arising from an impure state of the blood it appears to work like a charm, and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with injurious results and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegetine.

D. BUGBEE & CO

SWORN STATEMENT OF A BOSTON DRUGGIST.

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption My head ached all the time The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them but at his request postponed it The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep, hard cough Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges It stopped my cough in three days By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me The soreness across my chest disappeared the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of hearing and of seeing were completely restored and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians and have consulted the most eminent about my case I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have while following their use taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them

Since curing myself with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE I have recommended it in over one hundred cases without a single case of failure and I have in numerous instances received wholesale orders from parties to whom I have sold one bottle This is the only patent medicine I have ever recommended never having believed in them before although constantly engaged in their sale

ADDITIONAL STATEMENT

Since the above statement was made I have been rapidly improving in health I have had no return of the disagreeable symptoms that attended my former sickness, and although affected from time to time with severe colds incidental to the sudden changes in our climate, they have not been sufficient to bring on a return of the disease My general health has been excellent I have gained twenty five pounds and consider myself entirely recovered from a disease that a year ago seemed likely to totally undermine my constitution Since last February I have consulted with a great many afflicted with Catarrh and in the hundreds of cases in which I have sold it I have never seen an instance sufficient to shake the confidence I feel in Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh

UNCLE SAM'S THANKSGIVING DINNER.

BY MRS. H. G. ROWE.

I don't know who first got up the idea, perhaps Aunt Columby herself started it, for the old lady is as spry as a girl,—wears her hundred years as easy as most folks do fifty,—an' thinks herself just as capable of gettin' up a Thanksgivin' dinner in good shape, as ever she was. But this was to be an uncommon big one, for not only all the daughters in their fammerlies was invited, but all the relations far and wide, down to the fortieth cousin got an invite; an' I guess, judgin' by appearances, they pretty much all come.

The old folks was on hand to make 'em welcome, and I tell you, it was tall fun to see some of 'em from furrin parts, that hadn't never been here before, stare at our ways o' doin' things:

There was young Jack,—one of old John Bull's boys,—when Aunt Columby give his hand one of her hearty shakes, an' Uncle Sam slapped him on the shoulder an' whispered in his ear, that, if 'twant a patent, he should like ter know what kep that eyeglass o' his on, he sidled off, lookin' kind o' scared, an' I heard 'im tellin' his cousin Canady that we was a "derned inquisitive set," the French cousins turned up their noses at our cookin'—couldn't stan' our sour milk biscuits an' doughnuts; the Italians thought we didn't know much "art," seein' about all the picters we had was portraits; an' the Spaniards declared there wa'n't a woman among us that knew how to handle a fan or wear her veil as she'd orter.

But there didn't nobody mind sech little things as that. we'd expected somethin' o' the kind when we invited 'em, an' we'd all got set down a comfortable an' social like ter the table when one o' the girls—I've forgot which one 'twas—spoke up, an' says she:

"Well, Pa,—what about that guardeen for Tom?"

If somebody had throwed a bombshell rigot in amongst 'em there couldn't 'a' been a greater commotion.

All the girls began to talk at once, an' sech a powwow I guess you never heard before.

Uncle Sam didn't say nothin' himself, but pretended to be dreadful busy listenin' to a discussion between young Bull an' one o' the Rushin cousins on the best way ter carve Turkey,—it's a way the old man has of keepin' out o' famerly quarrels; an' it worked well, too, for by the time they got fairly ter goin' there wa'n't one of 'em that cared shucks whether he said anything or not.

You see the trouble was,—this "Tom" was a poor orphan boy that had been knocked round from pillar to post, amongst 'em, till Uncle Sam himself took pity on 'im, an' took 'im under his wing; an' now the question was started as to who should be chosen for a guardeen for 'im,—even them that had treated him the worst claimin' the right to say who it should be.

Newyork spoke first—she's one o' yer dashin' kind, wears good close an' jewelry, an' is great on economy (for other folks) an' says she:

"We've got to make sure of a man that's sound on the finance question,—an equinomical man, one that won't draw on the gineral purse ter pay for his wife's Paris slippers—"

"Number two an' a half," interrupted little Rhody with a giggle, but her Ma shook her head at 'er, an' she wilted, lookin' as streaked as if she'd spoke right out in meetin'.

"That's so," says Massachusetts, with that candid air of hers, "but there's somethin' more to be thought of in makin' a choice. What we want is a man that goes in for progress—EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS"—(you ought ter heard her bring out them two words,—I'll bet they tasted sweeter'n honey to 'er.) "Tom wants the chance to larn, an' he's got to have it, too."

"So he has," put in Maine, in her downright, outspoken way, (you see, Maine made it her home with this sister for a good many years, till she was old enough to set up for herself, an' she naturally thinks a good deal as she does on most things.) "Give the boy an eddication, by all means; let 'im learn to help himself an' we shan't hear any more of this shiftlessness and childish dependence that he's been accused of so long. Give 'im the chance to make a man of himself an' I'll resk but he'll do his part."

It may be that she did give a sidelong look to'rds the lower end o' the table where Georgy an' Carline, an' Virginny was a settin'; at any rate, they thought she did, an' a madder set o' critters I never did see.

"We don't want none o' yer Yankee chool-masters," sneered Carline, with a toss of her head that made the bone jewelry in her ears give a queer, rattlin' sound.

"What we want is a gentleman that'll understand an' sympathize with us upper classes—one that, instead of wastin' the money in tryin' to educate a half witted, ungrateful rascal that's only fit to hoe our cotton an' cane fields, will devote it to soothin' the declinin' years of us lords of the soil, by makin' up to us what we've had ter spend a'ready in supportin' an' protectin' this same Tom that you're makin' sech a fuss over."

"That's it!" says Virginny, so anxious to get in a word that she forgot to keep the underside of 'er sleeve out 'o sight with the stains on it where Tom's nose bled, one day, when she was knockin' his head agin a post, in one o' her tantrums.

"We're Tom's only real friends, after all. We've always treated 'im like one of our own famerly, an' he's been welcome to as good as we had ourselves. We've clothed an' fed 'im in health, an' nussed an' doctored 'im in sickness, 'an'—"

"Yes," interrupted Georgy, with her most high an' mighty air, "an' everybody knows that we're as herspitable a set down here as you'll find the world over. We're generous both to friend and foe, for we'd scorn—"

"Jimmy, my boy—come here!"

Thunder an' lightnin'! What a call that was! 'Twas Maine that spoke—an' sech a "speak!" Why, 'twas like the cry of fifteen thousand men when they're bound ter beat, live or die,—an' when she called that boy o' hern up, in that tone, I tell you we all understood that it meant business. "Jest remind yer Aunt Georgy," says she, with a look that made that dignified individooal squirm in spite of her nateral imperdence, "of the way that she exercised that 'horspitality' of hers on some o' yer brothers that tried ter keep 'er from floggin' an' shootin' Tom."

I wish you could 'a' seen that boy's face, just then;—he knew what the old lady meant, an' if he didn't go for 'em! I declare it fairly made my blood run cold to hear 'im tell of all the cruel starvins an' shootins, an' insults, both to the livin' an' the dead that that woman had treated her own sister's children to, just because they interfered to keep 'er from grindin' poor Tom to powder, soul and body both. Of course they tried hollerin' 'im down, an' Newyork,—who allers has a soft side for anybody that pertends ter blue blood—set one o' her boys to callin' names and blackguardin'. But, lawful sakes alive! they might jest as well have tried ter stop a whirlwind by shootin' peas at it; that feller was clear grit, an' he'd 'a' hed his say, I don't doubt, if the Heavens an' airth, an' tother place inter the bargain, hed set out ter stop 'im.

I tell you, 'twas enough ter do yer eyes good, though, ter see Maine set back an' fold 'er arms, an' listen to 'im with a smile on 'er face that said as plain as words could a' done:

"That's the kind o' crop I raise the most of." An' in spite of all the outcry, I noticed that a good many of 'em that hadn't said nothin' as yet, begun ter prick up their ears an' rub their eyes as if they was gettin' a new wakin' up; an' when he finished there was a good deal of clappin' on both sides o' the table;—though Carliny sulked, an' Georgy cried, an' muttered somethin' about it's not bein' respectful ter shake a "bloody shirt" at her, jest as if she was a mad bull that was ter be aggravated into a fight.

But by this time, they'd all got pretty well woke up, an' ready for a tilt at anything, an' when Massachusetts refused the mince pie because she smelt brandy in it; Injianny said she thought, for her part, that there was altogether too much fuss made about this liquor question. She believed everybody had a right ter do as they pleased in sech matters, an' she ruther put Massachusetts ter the blush by quotin' from a rhyme by one of 'er own boys:

> "'Tis but the fool who loves excess
> Hast thou a drunken soul,
> Thy bane is in thy shallow skull,
> Not in my silver bowl."

"Ahem!" an' the old lady smoothed down the folds of her black silk gown, an' looked hard at an ink smooch on her right forefinger,

"Well, well,—boys will be boys; an' Oliver is more of a poet than a reformer. But for my part," an' every hair of her grey head bristled with decision. "I'd put all the punch bowls an' glasses too into that 'Museum' that we're goin' ter make the 'Old South' over into, jest to show our descendents a hundred years hence how their fathers broke King Alcohol's fetters as they did King George's a century ago."

"Buncombe!" growled Injiany, takin' a sip at her glass o' lager beer.

But the old lady looked so smart an' hansome, that I couldn't help sympathizin' with Uncle Sam, when he whispered in my ear: "I tell you, that gal's a whole team; —an' no matter if she does shy off, now an' then, on temperance an' female suffrage, an' all them other hobbies o' hern, when the time comes for a fair fight, she'll haze 'er freshmen an' wheel 'er seniors into as straight a line as the best of 'em."

He chuckled as if he thought he'd got off a good thing, but I never can make out more'n half o' what he means, an' I must say that the pint o' this joke—if there was a pint to it,—was whittled down altogether too fine for me to see it.

But by this time they'd got so worked up that they actooally begun to indulge in personalities, flingin' out an' twittin' about each other's fammerlies, as relashuns have a way o' doin', pertendin' all the time that it's all on account of the interest they take in you an' yours:

Illinoy was madder'n a wet hen because somebody insinooated that her favorite son "Bob" wa'n't very well posted on his Catechism:

"I reckon," says she, pretty spitefully, "that, if he don't know all his Catechism, he lives up to its rules full as well as them that finds fault with 'im."

Vermont and Newhampshire clapped their hands at that, an' Maine joined in:

"I guess so, too," says she, noddin' friendly like acrost the table.

"If there'd been anything out o' the way about 'im, I guess my Jimmy'd 'a' knowed it, an' 'taint like him ter make friends with onreliable folks."

Newyork sneered, an' said somethin' about "homœopathic doses suitin' some folks in religion as well as in physic!" but Massachusetts flew out at that, an' wanted ter know when she "expected her son 'Billy' back?" She'd heard that he'd been caught over the other side o' the pond, an' was ter be brought home for 'is trial for stealin' that money from his mother's draw, that belonged to the other boys.

That ruddled Newyork, of course,—although she'd been awfully down on 'im herself, about that money,—an' she flung back somethin' about "glass houses" an' "bank defaulters" that couldn't be brought back;——

An' so they had it, first one, an' then tother, while all the time, they was puttin' themselves outside o' the good things that Uncle Sam had so gineroualy provided for 'em, with a relish that ought to a' made a Bengol tigar good natured.

I got fairly out o' patience at last, and says I:

"Uncle Samwil,—I don't know as it's exactly perlite in me to say so,—but of all the quarrelsome, ill brung up fammerlies that ever I did see, I must say yours is the beatermost. I've heard more jawin' an' disputin' to-day at your table, than I ever heard in all my life before."

The old man sighed an' drawed down 'is face with sech a distressful look that, for the minute, I really felt for 'im.

"Yes," says he, "that's a fact,—they air, as a fammerly, too fond of arguin' an' contendin,' I'll allow; but you see it's in the blood, an' they can't really help it, after all. There's their Ma, Columby, herself,—she's an awful loud spoken woman. Why, I've known the time, in her younger days, that she couldn't so much as make a cup o' tea without whoopin' like a wild Injin over it. An' though she's tamed down considerable sence that, I tell you, she's some on 'er high notes even now, when she fairly gets her dander up."

I knew somethin' of the old man's domestic trials, so I didn't ask no questions, only looked my sympathy; but he brightened up agin, in a minute:

"After all," an' he put his finger to one side of his nose, an' give a self satisfied cock to that Western eye of his'n "they have ter have a 'blow out' jest about so often—a sort of a national thunder shower, that cools the air an' makes the sky clear for quite a while.—An' then, if they dew get a leetle obstropolous, now an' then, they're a darned smart lot, anyhow."

He flourished that old star and stripe hankercher o' his that he's carried in his pocket so long that you can't tell which it smells strongest of, pine whittlins or terbacker, an' smiled down on that quarrelsome set, jest as serene as if they'd been a brood o' doves, that hadn't done nothin' but "coo" all their blessed lives.

He felt so good himself, that I couldn't say nothin', but thinks I to myself:

"Every goose thinks its own goslins swans, an' poor old Uncle Sam ain't any wiser 'n the rest of the world, where his own are consarned, after all."

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY.
Solicitor of Patents.

For Inventions, Trade Marks and Designs,
No. 76 State St., opposite Kilby St., Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents executed on reasonable terms, with despatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Com'r of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE.
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART."

In the matter of WENTWORTH VARNEY, Bankrupt.

IN BANKRUPTCY.

This is to give notice that a petition has been presented to the Court, this 23d day of November, 1876, by Wentworth Varney of Norridgewock, a Bankrupt, individually and as a member of the firm of B. Varney & Company, praying that he may be decreed to have a full discharge from all his debts, individual and copartnership, provable under the Bankrupt Act, and upon reading said petition,

It is ordered by the Court that a hearing be had upon the same, on the first Monday of March, A. D. 1877, before the Court in Portland, in said District, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and that the second meeting of the creditors of said Bankrupt, be held before Charles Hamlin, Esq., Register, on the [illegible] day of January, 1877, and [illegible] published in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier [illegible]

CHILDREN TEETHING.

MRS. WINSLOW'S
SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething,

greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered

This valuable preparation has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

Thousands of Cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic.

We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

Be sure and call for

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup,"

Having the fac simile of "CURTIS & PERKINS" on the outside wrapper.

Bangor Water Board.

Section 17, of an ordinance for the protection and regulation of the Bangor Water Works as follows

The regular Rates for Street and Garden Sprinklers and for Yard and Lawn Hydrants, will be based upon their use for one hour per day for ninety days in the year, and they are not to be used to the injury or inconvenience of persons passing in the streets, and only at such hours as the Water Board may direct.

Yard and Garden Hydrants must not be converted into jets, and neither the sprinklers nor Hydrants are to be used for wetting other premises than the ones defined in the application, without permission of said Board, and payment for said additional use. The size of the stream permitted shall, in all cases be fixed by the Board, and the increasing of the size by the user, shall be sufficient cause for the turning off of the water.

The Board may designate the hours during which the sprinklers and hydrants may be used. Their use, while a fire is raging, is positively forbidden, except in case of danger to the premises from fire.

In accordance with said Section the Water Board have fixed on the following hours in which sprinklers may be used for sprinkling streets. In the morning, between the hours of six and eight o'clock, in the evening between the hours of five and seven o'clock.

Curran, of Bangor, a Bankrupt, individually and as a member of the firm of Byron & Curran, praying that he may be decreed to have a full discharge from all his debts, individual and copartnership, provable under the Bankrupt Act, and upon reading said petition,

It is ordered by the Court that a hearing be had upon the same, on the first Monday of January, A. D. 1877, before the Court in Portland, in said District, at 10 o'clock A. M., and that the second meeting of the creditors of said Bankrupt, be held before Charles Hamlin, Esq., Register, on the [illegible] day of November, 1876, and the third meeting of the same on the [illegible] day of November, 1876, and that notice thereof be published in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier and the Piscataquis Observer, newspapers printed in said District, once a week for three successive weeks, and once in the weekly Bangor Courier, the last publication to be thirty days at least before the day of hearing, and that all creditors who have proved their debts and other persons in interest, may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

WM. P. PREBLE,
Clerk of District Court for said District.
